DR. BOYD SAYS OKLAHOMA IS NOW ON UP GRADE

Glendale Permits, Now Sure to Exceed Ten Millions for Year 1923

Our City comment & discussion by THOMAS D. WATSON

Fight Against Sewer Bonds Is Fight in Favor of Annexation to Los Angeles

IN TODAY'S column "Editorials by the People" appears a letter from Mr. J. R. Grey commenting on the sewer problem.

Mr. Grey, as most of us know, is an ardent annexationist and has for some time been one of the leaders in that movement, along with the rest of us, however, recognizing the fact that Glendale must have sewers, though he still holds the same opinion as to annexation.

As mentioned in this column before, the fight, if there is any, is not against sewers, but for and against annexation. Those in favor of annexation to Los Angeles feel that by defeating the sewer bonds they will be boosting the annexation movement.

WE ARE of the opinion that they are barking up the wrong tree and hurting their cause more by endeavoring to becloud the issue than if they would get on the band wagon and help carry the bonds to build the sewer without delay. If they want to bring the annexation up for an issue it can be done later on. Glendale taxpayers might as well accept two paramount facts that cannot be denied. The first of these is that we must have sewers regardless of any future growth, as the present conditions demand it. The second is that the Glendale taxpayers will pay for it whether we do it as a separate city or as a tax district named by the Los Angeles city council.

BY ANNEXING to Los Angeles we need not expect to shift over to their shoulders the paying for our sewers. Mr. Grey, in his letter, suggests that we take over the responsibility of giving the facts to the public. In making this suggestion he undoubtedly believes that we are fair-minded and will give the public the true facts, regardless of whether or not they further our personal beliefs.

MR. GREY is correct in this assumption, for while we are without any reservations whatsoever for the sewer bonds, we will not, under any circumstances, be party to any propaganda for or against the proposition, unless it is supported by facts. With this idea uppermost in our minds we recommend to our readers that they go to the polls on January 8th and vote yes on the proposition.

IN MAKING this plea we want to assure our readers that we have carefully gone over facts and figures submitted by both sides as well as data secured by ourselves from official sources, and, as stated in yesterday's editorial, even admitting for sake of argument all the claims put forth by the annexationists or the anti-sewer people as true, added all together they prove insignificant alongside the setback which is bound to come should the bonds be defeated.

IN YESTERDAY'S editorial we suggested that the city officials keep out of this controversy. That this advice was sound has been justified by two meetings held since that time. At these meetings, on account of a talk by a member of the city council, considerable ill feeling and strife was engendered. It has been suggested that much of the opposition was on account of antipathy towards some of the members of the council.

IF THIS is true we would suggest that this be laid aside until after the bond election and then the matter can be taken up and ironed out.

A loyal citizen should not let anything such as this keep him from voting for the sewer bonds. We are at the present time collecting and getting into understandable form considerable data which has been the means of convincing us of the necessity and desirability of voting for the bonds. In a few days we will submit this to our readers for their consideration.

GLENDALE C. OF C. TO MEET AT CALL OF PRES.

Glendale Chamber of Commerce directors will not meet Monday noon according to an announcement this morning by Secretary E. F. Sanders. The next meeting will be held subject to the call of President W. E. Hewitt.

DR. BOYD TALKS OF CRISIS IN OKLAHOMA

Says New Governor is Man of Worth and Will Rule Wisely

Dr. David R. Boyd of 1010 East Harvard street, Glendale, has returned from a three months' business trip to Norman, Oklahoma, where for over 20 years he was president of the state university of Oklahoma.

As a student of political economy and being thoroughly familiar with the state history, Dr. Boyd observed and experienced with great interest the recent political upheaval in Oklahoma.

The crisis in Oklahoma politics is believed by Dr. Boyd to have been passed. He stated that Lieutenant Governor M. C. Trapp, who was automatically made chief executive of the state, took office without any "strings" upon his judgment.

"He is a very experienced politician," declared Dr. Boyd. "He made the statement that he is going to give the people the most government for a dollar that he can. One of the first things he did was to request the legislature to appoint a commission to go through the state institutions and departments and eliminate waste and useless employes without fear or favor."

The political situation in Oklahoma was "pretty bad," before the impeachment of Governor J. C. Walton, according to Dr. Boyd. He added that all indications pointed to his corruptness and that even his friends voted for three of the 21 counts in his indictments.

Although a list of almost 400 pardons was published by Governor Walton, records of over 300 secret pardons were discovered after his

Mr. Colburn was a graduate of Cedar Rapids (Iowa) High school in the year 1891; entered the advertising business and had his first advertising agency in that city at the age of 19, the population then being 21,000. In 1895 he went to St. Paul and entered the grocery business as head clerk for Donohue syndicate. He was elected president of the Retail Grocery Clerks' association and was a delegate to the Retail Clerks' International convention at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1902. He was a representative of the National Biscuit company, H. J. Heinz company and also the Shenkburg company of Sioux City, Iowa as traveling salesman. Later he opened and was manager of a branch house at Pipestone, Minn., of the Gamble-Robinson Fruit and Commission company of Minneapolis; was instrumental in the re-organization of the Pipestone Chamber of Commerce and was elected secretary. Pipestone was then the home of C. W. Denhardt of the Burbank D and N. Grocery. Mr. Colburn was next called to Pocatello, Idaho, as secretary of the chamber of commerce; organized and was secretary and treasurer of the Idaho Retail Merchants' association. He then entered politics and was sent to San Diego, Cal., during the Panama-California Exposition there. He was made publicity man for Ed Fletcher company of San Diego. He then became private secretary to the late George W. Houk, the wire-wheel magnate of Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Houk was president of the Northern San Diego county chamber of commerce. When he died in 1917, Mr. Colburn became business manager of the Houk property under direction of the probate court. He then became assemblyman of the San Diego county district in the 1921 session of the state legislature. He next came to Burbank.

CHAIRMAN SEWER PRECINCT ASKS AID

The voters of precinct No. 15 are vitally interested in securing the sewerage system for Glendale. It is up to us to see that the bond issue carries in this precinct January 8, next, and it would be the greatest boost this section of the city ever received if our percentage of votes for the bonds led the city. We need volunteer workers to see each voter in each block. If you can possibly help out please see me at my office, 1131 East Colorado. W. S. KIRK, Chairman, Precinct No. 15.

KELS WILL BE GIVEN ANOTHER SANITY TEST TODAY

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 21.— Dr. L. L. Stanley, resident physician of San Quentin penitentiary and Dr. Jau Don Ball of the University of California at Berkeley, were expected to arrive in Sacramento this afternoon on their way to Folsom prison where late today, in company with Dr. Fred F. Gundrum, vice president of the state board of health, a quantity of the spinal fluid of Alex A. Kels, condemned murderer, was to be taken from the prisoner.

The test is to be made in an effort to determine by laboratory analysis whether or not Kels is insane. Upon the outcome of the test, it is understood, will depend the next step to be taken by the condemned man's wife, Mrs. Anne Kels of Lodi in her endeavors to have a court test made into her husband's mental condition.

From her home in Lodi today came word that Mrs. Kels would not be present at Folsom prison when the test is made this evening.

Just Off the Wire From Here and There

[By Associated Press]

STRATFORD, Ont., Dec. 21.—The last day of the 1924 autumn season developed by the unusual spring-like weather in Ontario was reported today by Fred Crocker, who picked luscious ripe strawberries from the vines in his garden.

Crocker's Christmas pie will be strawberry instead of pumpkin and mince.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 21.—Arthur Covell, Coos county astrologer, sentenced to death on the gallows for complicity in the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ebba Covell, will not be hanged today as sentenced.

Pending decision on his appeal Governor Pierce has issued a reprieve to Covell.

NOGALES, Ariz., Dec. 21.—Reports of the destruction of three towns near the Sierra Madres in Sonora by an earthquake have been confirmed, said a message received by the Mexican consul here today from the Mexican consul at Nogales, Ariz. The message said there were several hundred casualties. It is also stated that the towns of Granados, Oputo and Huasabas were devasted. Reports from the zone of the disaster are meagre, according to the message, due to the isolation of the cities. Damage caused by the quake is heavy, the message said, and many lives were lost.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 21.—United States District Attorney Burns today announced he intended to effect the arrest of a group of Americans and Mexicans who have been attempting to smuggle arms and munitions to the rebels in Mexico. Mr. Burns refused to give the identity of those involved.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 21.—The Chippewa bank, in the southern part of the city, closed today and a report reached prosecuting officials that the shortage may reach $500,000. Gottlieb Wyermann, president, issued a statement that the cashier, John S. Carr, confessed that he was short in his accounts and returned $34,000, but that the exact shortage has not been ascertained. The capital of the bank is given as $200,000 and the surplus as $100,000.

GLENDALE HIGH FOOTBALLERS FEASTED

Capture Turkeys After 100-Yard Run But No Kicks Registered

Glendale High school's "Dynamiters," football champions of the Central League and runners-up in the race for the Southern California prep grid title, were toasted in song, speech, and food last night at a banquet given in their honor at the Central Christian church by all of the dinner clubs of Glendale. The Rotary club, Exchange club, Kiwanis club, Realty board, Credit association and Chamber of Commerce joined in their tribute to Coach Hayhurst, his assistants and their bunch of Black and Red footballers who have made the name of Glendale one to be feared in the athletic world.

The occasion was indeed one of rejoicing. More than 170 persons were in attendance, and all of them were jubilant over the achievements of the High school football team this year. Among the crowd that attended the banquet were many graduates of Glendale High, some of them former players on the Black and Red athletic teams.

The banquet hall of the church was decorated in red and green and the tables were adorned with the Christmas colors. The footballers, all three teams, with the coaches and school officials, were seated at the table with the toastmaster and speakers.

Anyone wondering why the "Dynamiters" devoured their opponents would have cause to wonder no more after seeing them devour the guests of honor, the roast turkeys. The dinner, served by the girls of the High school, was certainly a success from the culinary aspect, at least if that can be judged by its popularity among the

BURBANK EMPLOYEE FATALLY HURT IN AUTO SMASH

Mr. Claud Koutz of 619 Orange Grove avenue, who was an employe of the public service department of the city of Burbank, expired last evening at the Burbank hospital, due to injuries received in an accident. The accident occurred yesterday morning at 239 Grismer avenue, about 9 o'clock. The city truck was parked on the side of the road and he was standing at the rear of it, when Mrs. Paul G. Webster, residing at 527 Grismer, who was driving a Ford touring car, swerved off the road, struck the city truck from the rear, catching and pinning Mr. Koutz between the two cars. The impact was so terrific that it pushed the truck 75 feet forward, breaking the seats and windshield. He was rushed to the Burbank hospital where a fight was put up for his life but to no avail. Mrs. Webster is in a state of collapse and upon being interviewed as to how the accident occurred, stated that she had been driving probably about 25 or 30 miles an hour and had her two children in the rear seat. She turned around while the car was in motion, to tuck the robe about the children, possibly letting go of the steering wheel, and the car struck the curb and swerved to the opposite side of the road, striking the truck.

She is being held on the charge of manslaughter and an inquest will be held over the body of the dead man tomorrow morning at 9:30 at the Filbach undertaking parlors. The deceased leaves a wife and two children.

Inspectors Destroy Insanitary Meats

[By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Federal inspection laws have been in operation for 17 years. During this time more than 3,500,000 whole carcasses and more than 12,000,000 parts of carcasses have been condemned and made unfit for food purposes through the vigilance of the federal meat inspectors.

CHRISTMAS JOY FOR YOAKUM FAMILY

Gifts of Money, Eatables, Supplies Pour in, Result of Press Appeal

If you could see the winsome, blue-eyed, blonde-haired, dimple-cheeked 22-months-old miss at 1210 East Lexington drive as she smilingly crawls about with her left leg in a plaster cast, you would understand exactly why her parents were willing to leave their home in Phoenix, Arizona, and risk the utmost privations in order that her physical handicap might be overcome.

Despite poverty, this will be a happy Christmas for Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Yoakum. They are not only grateful for neighborly generosity but are confident that their trip to Southern California will not have been in vain. Dr. Charles S. Young, specialist at the Los Angeles Orthopaedic hospital, has assured them that there is an excellent chance to correct Margaret's deformity. Although this will probably take months, they will be patient. Meanwhile, the child plays about, obvious of the sacrifice made for her sake.

Through the combined attention of the Glendale Welfare bureau and the Glendale Daily Press, the four-room shack occupied by the Yoakum family has now been transformed into a real home. This has been almost completely furnished. Four beds, a crib, a number of chairs are only some of the articles of furniture delivered. The front room, in which the newly-arrived baby reigns as queen, is being heated by a new oil heater and the cold floor is warmed by grass matting. One carpet has been prom-

SURELY THERE IS JOY WITH THE ANGELS OVER THIS GIFT

The dear little babe sent straight from heaven to fill her longing arms was never seen by her. Scarce had the first feeble wail announced to the eager mother heart that her woman's sacrifice of time, comfort and enjoyment had borne full fruition, until the dread summons back to that realm whence the spirit had come was obeyed and the breath which had so sweetly stirred the rose-leaf lips fluttered its last sigh. The memory of that departed babe is still very, very dear to Mrs. Edna Graham and many bitter tears have fallen from her eyes upon the layette so lovingly prepared beforehand for the expected little stranger, but the story of present suffering as related in the Daily Press had a more powerful appeal, so today Mrs. Graham came to the office of the paper and asked the address of the Yoakum family that she might give to the wee stranger that has just made its advent into what seemed a cruel world, the dainty garments of her own little darling that had been so sacredly treasured since the angels called her back home. Truly has this bereaved mother found that it is indeed more blessed to give than to receive, as the Master said.

Mrs. Graham, who lives at 439 West Lexington drive, said that she would also give to the family two heavy suits of her own warm clothing.

BOY HIT BY AUTO, FIVE RIBS BROKEN

Irving Young, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Young, of 3618 Brunswick avenue, Los Angeles, was brought to the Glendale sanitarium hospital about 2:30 p. m. yesterday with five ribs broken.

George W. Sipe of Los Angeles, whose machine struck the boy in an accident near Brunswick avenue, reported: "I was driving north on Glendale boulevard and there were some boys playing between the car tracks and the curb and this boy jumped from the curb in front of my car."

NO MEDICAL VALUE IN BEER, SAYS GOVT.

[By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The right of physicians to prescribe beer for their patients was denied in a brief filed today by the government with the supreme court in a test case expected to result in final determination of that question.

Defending the constitutionality of the Willis-Campbell anti-beer law, the government's belief, signed by Solicitor General Beck and Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general, in charge of prohibition prosecutions, declared that beer has no medicinal value and its prohibition under physicians' prescriptions is necessary to enforce national prohibition.

BEAUTIFUL PLAY OF "EAGER HEART" IN NEW HI SCHOOL

After seeing the picture in yesterday's Press of a portion of the cast of "Great Heart," the play to be given in the new Glendale high school auditorium tomorrow night, everyone will surely want to attend. All the performers have been carefully drilled, and their acting has received warm commendation from the director, Mrs. Geraldine Jacobi Russell.

As there is to be no admission charge the immense auditorium is sure to be packed, so the admonition is given to go early.

TEACHERS ARE IN CLOSING MEETING

The California Teachers' association, Southern section, which includes all teachers in this vicinity, this afternoon will conclude its thirtieth annual institute.

The 10,000 teachers in attendance today again crowded the three largest auditoriums in Los Angeles.

At the Bible Institue addresses were made by Dr. E. W. Chubb, dean of Ohio University, who spoke on "The Larger Patriotism" and Dr. Augustus O. Thomas, commissioner of education for the state of Maine, whose subject was "The World Aspect of Education." A short program was given by the John Muir Junior High school orchestra.

At the Philharmonic auditorium Dr. W. T. Root of the University of Pittsburgh spoke upon "Factors of More Importance in Elementary Education than the Three R's" and Dr. David Starr Jordan of Stanford University delivered an address upon "The Way Out of War." Music was furnished by the Kinder band of South Pasadena.

At the Trinity auditorium Frank Walter Allen, editor of the Illinois State Journal, commented upon "The Psychology of Everyday Living" and Dr. Ross L. Finney of the University of Minnesota spoke upon "The Social Functions of Art."

Closing sessions are being held this afternoon.

At the Bible Institute three addresses are being made: Prof. C. G. Sargent of Colorado college is speaking upon "Rural Leadership," Dr. E. W. Chubb of Ohio university is speaking upon "The Experimental Life" and Dr. Ross L. Finney of the University of Minnesota is speaking upon "New Schools for a New Age."

At the Philharmonic auditorium three addresses are being delivered also, Frank Walter Allen, editor of the Illinois State Journal is speaking upon "What the Novel Does;" Dr. Eugene Davenport of the University of Illinois is discussing "Vocational Education," and Dr. Augustus O. Thomas, commissioner of education for Maine, is declaiming upon "The Teachers' Challenge."

FATAL CROSSING OF S. P. TO BE PROTECTED

TEN MILLIONS IN PERMITS FOR 1923

Two Large Ones This Morning for Apartments Add Much to Total

Only $143,282 worth of permits need be issued at the building office in the city hall during the remaining seven business days of this month in order for the year's total to reach the $10,000,000 mark.

At noon today December had $634,559 to its credit and the total for the year to date was $9,856,718.

Two apartment courts were provided for by recent permits. One of them will be built at 230 South Adams street for Mrs. Elizabeth Aiple of Los Angeles and will consist of thirty-six apartments which will cost $27,500. The other one will be built at 1463 East California avenue for Milton Hesse of 228 North Jackson street and will have ten units which will cost $29,500.

Over $50,000 worth of permits were issued this morning. The latest permits include the following:

Milton Hesse, 10-unit court and garage, 1463 East California, $29,500; Mrs. Elizabeth Aiple, apartment house, 230 South Adams, $27,500; Charles Sabin, 3 rooms and garage, 475 West Elk, contractor L. Jellison, 6 rooms and garage, 1238 Boynton, $600; A. E. Sauter, garage, 1928 Verdugo Knolls, $500.

EAGLE ROCK W. C. T. U. TO BE SANTA CLAUS FOR OLD LADIES

The W. C. T. U. announces that it has doubled its membership, so the members are able to get the Budget cheaper than they otherwise could do. Last year they had only 24 members. This month, the 48-member mark was passed, consequently each member has to pay only 50 cents a year for the Budget, instead of 75 cents. The plans have been made for the Christmas tree which will be at the Old Ladies' home. Every lady in this home will have at least one gift, and the chances are that they will get several. Each year the different unions get together on this, and every one sends in some item as a Christmas gift. A turkey dinner will be served Christmas day and the matron announces that three turkeys were given them a few days ago by one man. The board is at present looking around for more ground, provided however they can sell the present location.

JUSTICE AT LAST TO WIDOWS OF SOLDIERS

[By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Reversing a practice that has been followed many years in determining pensions for widows of civil war and other veterans, Secretary Work in a decision today, ruled that no widow shall be denied a pension where the essential facts are the same as those upon which a husband was paid.

Heretofore a veteran's service record was investigated in adjudicating widows' claims and the pension bureau has on file hundreds of claims of widows who have been denied pensions under the same laws by which their husbands continued to draw a pension until death.

KIWANIANS HEAR ALL ABOUT SEWERS

Many Speeches Made, Some Quite Fiery But All Convincing

Glendale's approaching sewer bond issue was the subject of discussion at noon in the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club.

"I would risk my life that there isn't a man in this room who isn't going to vote for the sewers," declared Councilman Sam Davis in one of the most forceful speeches of his civic career. "But I have lost so many things just when I had my hands on them, that I am not going to be sure of anything until I have it nailed down.

"Do you know that if this contract was assignable there would be nothing I would want better than to sell it on commission? I could take it over to Pasadena and sell it for a million dollars and then they would build the sewer, too."

Annexationists who obstructed the obtaining of the contract were bitterly scored by Councilman Davis. He asserted that they had not only endeavored to prevent favorable action by the Los Angeles city council but that a person, whose identity is known, was in Mayor George E. Cryer's office when the contract was delivered to him, and assured him that an injunction would be issued if he should sign it.

"An injunction!" exclaimed Mr. Davis. "Did you ever hear of that word injunction before?"

Scattered laughter interrupted the speech for a few seconds.

"As somebody said," Mr. Davis continued, "they are going up to people and saying: 'Do you want to give Los Angeles $1,600,000?'—and then walking away. They have to walk off—that is all they know about the subject."

Cesspools dug this year cost more than the estimated taxation the first year on account of the sewer bonds, according to Mr. Davis. He called attention to the fact that 2033 cesspools have been dug within the city limits this year at a total cost of $101,650. Dividing this amount into the assessed valuation of $30,092,000 makes the expense $3.37 per $1000 of assessed valuation or 27 cents more than the cost of the bonds the first year.

Taxation statistics were submitted by Councilman Asa Hall, financial expert of the city administration. Annexation, in his opinion, would mean that Glendale would have to assume $99,685,000 of the bonded indebtedness of Los Angeles. He admitted that some of these bonds are being taken care

MEXICAN SITUATION TODAY ACCORDING TO THE A. P.

[By Associated Press]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Charge Summerlind, telegraphing from Mexico City, advised the state department that the Mexican revolutionary forces have been thrown back from San Marcos and that the federal troops were advancing toward Esperanza, Oriental and Puebla.

A dispatch from the American consular representative at Chihuahua said that Manuel Chuo, with 50 men, attacked and captured a train on the Parral and Durango railway Wednesday. The incident was said to have been the first rebel outbreak in the Chihuahua district.

A new offensive has been launched by Mexican federal troops against the Puebla rebels, according to a statement issued here today by the Mexican embassy.

"The Mexican embassy has officially informed," the statement said, "that at an interval granted to the representatives granted to the press at Mexico City President Obregon said that the only difficulty encountered in fighting the rebels was that they would not wait to be attacked, but that they would flee at the approach of the troops, tearing up the tracks in their retreat."

HUMANE SOCIETY HAS MEETING TO ELECT 1924 OFFICERS

The Glendale Humane Society, which was formerly known as the Dog Protective association, held a very enthusiastic meeting Thursday night at the city hall, when the following officers were elected: Edwin Kulp, president; Alexander Mitchell, vice-president; J. W. Murphy, vice-president; Mrs. John Hoadley, secretary; Friend Razek, treasurer; directors, Mrs. J. Zink, Mrs. Frank Card, Dr. Richmond and Dwight W. Stephenson.

As the Humane society, this organization will cover a much larger field of work than as the dog protective association. Mrs. Marian Mayland Brase of Santa Monica is to be the speaker at the next meeting, to be held on January 24 at the high school, when it is anticipated that the charter will be received from the state society. Mrs. Brase was the founder of the Humane society of Southern California.

During the business session it was voted to present a Christmas gift of $25 to the Yoakum family on East Lexington drive. A committee consisting of Alexander Mitchell, J. W. Murphy and Mrs. F. S. Card was appointed to deliver this money today.

LA CRESCENTA NOTES

Members of the Episcopal church are planning services on Christmas morning if it is possible for them to secure a pastor. The usual Sunday morning services will be held, with Dr. Noble of Pasadena presiding. Sunday school will precede the services.

Miss Zella Dunlop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlop, is at home for the Christmas vacation. Miss Dunlop is a student in the Hollingsworth high school.

The senior class of the Community Sunday school was host at a delightful affair in the social room of the Community church last evening, Rev. H. A. Kelso, the instructor, being the honor guest. Another happy affair given at the Community church was the Christmas party to the primary class this afternoon. Games, music and a Christmas trial were happy features of the afternoon.

Friends of Mrs. D. E. Mallett, 1313 East California avenue, will be glad to know that she is slowly recovering from a serious attack of grippe, which has confined her to her bed for a couple of weeks. Although still quite feeble she is allowed to sit up a few hours each day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glover of 414 Myrtle street will entertain as their guests at Christmas dinner Mrs. Eckart, Miss Inez Eckart, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willitts and Jack Berryman of Los Angeles.

CHAPTER C J OF P.E.O. HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Members of Chapter CJ, of the P. E. O. had a real Christmas party at the home of Mrs. D. W. Porter in Spencer Place on Thursday. Each guest brought a basket lunch and coffee was served by the hostess who had decorated with Christmas greenery including a large and beautifully trimmed tree upon a table whereon the gift that each member brought was laid.

A short business session was held and final arrangements made for sending a Christmas box to the girls' school at Ventura. During the afternoon thirteen dolls furnished by Miss Jeannette Herrick, were dressed and will be made a part of the Christmas donation which the Casa Verdugo M. E. church is sending to the Children's hospital of Los Angeles. Miss Grace Crampton was received into membership and at the close of the business session a brief program was given which included the reading of a Christmas poem by Mrs. Roy Hinchcliff, and the presentation of a paper on Christmas carols, their origin and development, by Mrs. Myrtle Brown. When the distribution of gifts was made, members were called in alphabetic order and permitted to select from the packages on the table.

GET RESERVED SEATS AT ONCE FOR 'OH-HO' MUSICAL SHOW

There have been hundreds of seats sold and already reserved for "Oh-Ho," the Santa Claus show. All who are planning to see this college life musical feast of joy must make their reservations at Roberts & Echols' drug store, where the reserved seats are on sale, and where all holders of tickets must have them exchanged.

To be assured of the choicer seats, reservations should be made at once, for this production, at its rock bottom price of 50 cents has caught the popular fancy, and it looks like standing room only will be at a premium by the time the curtain rises tomorrow evening.

Dr. Harrower, chairman of the "Oh-Ho" Santa Claus show, urges those who have been mailed tickets to remit their checks to him at once. So many letters have been received from boys and girls who are needing this show fund to make them happy for Christmas, that Dr. Harrower says everyone of the dependable people to whom tickets have been mailed he hopes will be certain to realize the call that is being made to them, and that they will help out in this needed work.

Those who have not been mailed tickets can make their reservations the same as those who hold tickets. Everyone must call at the Roberts & Echols drug store to have their seats reserved.

"Oh-Ho" is a fast and entertaining college life musical show that has made a tremendous hit wherever produced. The cast here is the most capable that has ever played in an amateur show in Glendale, and the show ranks ahead of all that have been given here with local talent.

It is a show worth two dollars in theatrical entertainment anywhere, but it is being given for 50 cents, just to make money for the Santa Claus fund that is so much needed.

The show will be seen at the new high school auditorium on Saturday evening at 8:15. This is the last opportunity afforded Glendale of seeing this entertaining show.

The cast includes more than 50 prominent local people, as follows: Mrs. John D. Cole, Mrs. Malvern Barker, Phyllis Kilpatrick, Hazel Linkogel, Jane Pearsall, Marie Hearnshaw, Evelyn Hunt, Leona Hunt, Dorothy Houston, Rebecca Hodge, Polly Richmond, Ida Englehart, Betty Knudsen, Sally Trump, Ruth Clauson, Marjorie Hart, Wilma Gasser, Elizabeth Walker, Beryl Goodale, Marjorie Temple, Alice Dewey, Joe Griffin, Stanley Lindman, Arthur Wyatt, Jack Stathem, John Reber, George Lowry, Howard Elliot, Archie Neal, Ralph Eccles, Marion Morrison, Jess Hibbs, Bub Carver, Dante La Franchi, Cyril Walton, Darrel Elliot, Elmer Fitz, Ronald West, Theodore Haig, John Lovell, Golburn Danner, Bill Felton, Jack James, Bill Shinner, Norman Nelson, Wally Haynes, Arthur Cressy, Henry Grace and Tubby Walcott.

INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN EXPERT AS CAT SHOW JUDGE

Dr. Libbie Ashcroft, president of the Glendale Cat club, reports as a great feather in the cap of her organization that Miss Ethel R. B. Champion, formerly a resident of England and well-known as an expert judge among cat fanciers of that country, the Atlantic coast and middle west, has been engaged to judge the entries in the Glendale Cat Show to be held here January 16 and 17. She is considered the finest international critic on cats that has ever served in this country, and other cat clubs are quite invious of the enterprise and courage of the Glendale organization in securing her. She will arrive here January 15. Glendale is becoming known as the cat "proud" community because so many fanciers are resident here and the quality of their stock is so fine.

GIVE SHOWER AT HOME OF MILLERS FOR BRIDE-TO-BE

Mrs. Homer B. Miller of 434 Burchett street, assisted by Miss Fern Peters, entertained with a miscellaneous shower given at the home of the former on Wednesday night in honor of Miss Berenice Littleton of Glendale, who is soon to be married to Calvin Enoch of Arizona. SANTA CLAUS WINS KIDDIES' HEARTS AT PENDROY'S

A very convincing representation of Near East relief was afford at Brand and Harvard this morning when about 500 Glendale youngsters, starving for candy, assembled in front of the side entrance at Pendroy's and held up appealing hands to a benevolent looking Santa Claus, stationed on a narrow ledge outside the mezzanine balcony. From a big shiny can he drew package after package and threw to the cheering children who scrambled for the sweets even when the package broke on the hard pavement.

The cheeks of Santa Claus were suspiciously round and un-wrinkled but otherwise he was the typical old saint beloved of childhood. He certainly had the heart of Santa Claus and often aimed at fragile little youngsters on the outskirts of the crowd and hands that were thin and grimy rather than clean ones raised above warm overcoats. The boy in scuffed shoes who didn't expect much suddenly found himself the beneficiary of the good saint—but well dressed youngsters had their innings too and managed to get what was coming to them while the getting was good.

One father of a sick boy suffering from gatherings in his head, sat on the side lines and held his little son where he could see Santa Claus while another sturdy son skirmished for the largess of the saint and shared his spoils with his less fortunate brother. There were girls in plenty, too, and without seeming to push or engage in unladylike yelling they managed to surround as many bags as their masculine competitors.

Inside the store, the confederates of Santa were kept busy renewing his stores from huge clothesbaskets piled high with the toothsome luxuries.

Santa seemed to enjoy his popularity and did some fine balancing acts on his high perch while Mr. and Mrs. Pendroy watched the scene with enjoyment from behind a curtain and at intervals cautioned, "Do be careful, Maurice."

Earl Pendroy claims Santa Claus as a relative. He says the patron of childhood who is making his headquarters in the store very closely resembles his "baby brother," Maurice Pendroy, who recently completed a course at an eastern military academy and will be connected with the establishment from this time forward. The distribution closed at 11 o'clock and Santa heaved a sigh of satisfaction and relief when the hour struck.

Modern Version of New Testament

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

But they did not understand what he meant, indeed it was concealed from them, in order that they might not comprehend it, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

A discussion arose among them as to which of them would be the greatest. But Jesus knew the question that was in their minds and he took a child and made him stand by his side, and said to them,

"Whoever welcomes this child on my account is welcoming me, nad whoever welcomes me, welcomes him who has sent me. For it is the lowliest among you who is really great."

John answered,

"Master, we saw a man driving out demons with your name, and we told him not to do so, for he does not go with us."

Jesus said to him,

"Do not try to stop them, for the man who is not against you is for you."

As the time approached when he was to be taken up to heaven, he set his face toward Jerusalem, and sent messengers before him. They started out and went into a Samaritan village, to make preparations for him. And the people there would not receive him, because he was going to Jerusalem. When the disciples, James and John, saw this, they said,

"Master, will you have us order fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

But he turned and reproved them. And they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, a man said to him,

"I will follow you wherever you go."

Jesus said to him,

"Foxes have holes, and wild birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head!"

He said to another,

"Follow me."

But he said,

"Let me first go and bury my father."

Jesus said to him,

"Leave the dead to bury their own dead; you must go and spread the news of the Kingdom of God!"

Yet another man said to him,

"Master, I am going to follow you, but let me first say goodbye to my people at home."

Jesus said to him,

"No one who puts has hand to the plough, and then looks back, is fitted for the Kingdom of God."

After this the Master appointed seventy-two others, and sent them on before him, two by two, to every town or place to which he intended to come. And he said to them,

"The harvest is abundant enough, but the reapers are few. So pray to the owner of the harvest to send reapers to gather it. Now go. Here I send you out like lambs among wolves Carry no purse nor wallet nor shoes, and do not stop to exchange civilities with anyone on the way. Whenever you go to stay at a house, first say, 'Peace to this household!' If there is anyone there who loves peace, your blessing will rest upon him, but if there is not, it will come back to you. Stay at the same house, eating and drinking what they offer you, for the workman deserves his pay. Do not change from one house to another. Whenever you come to a town and they welcome you, eat what is offered you, and cure the sick there, and say to them, 'The Kingdom of God is close upon you!' But whenever you come to a town and they do not welcome you, go out into the open streets and say, 'The very dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off in protest. But understand this: the Kingdom of God is at hand!' I tell you, on that Day Sodon will fare better than that town! Alas for you, Chorazin! Alas for you, Bethsaida! For if the wonders that have been done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes! But Tyre and Sidon will fare better than you at the Judgment! And you, Capernaum! Are you to be exalted to the skies? You will go down among the dead! Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever disregards you disregards me, and whoever disregards me disregards him who sent me."

The seventy-two came back delighted, and said,

"Master, when we use your name the very demons submit to us!"

He said to them,

"I saw Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning! Here I have given you the power to tread on snakes and scorpions, and to trample on all the power of the enemy. Nothing will hurt you at all. But do not be glad that the spirits submit to you, but be glad that your names are enrolled in heaven."

At that moment he was inspired with joy, and said,

"I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding all this from the learned and intelligent, and revealing it to children! Yes, I thank you, Father, for choosing to have it so! Everything has been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is but the Father. nor who the Father is but the Son, and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

And he turned to his disciples when they were alone, and said,

"Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! For I tell you, many prophets and kings have wished to see what you see, and could not see it, and to hear what you hear, and could not hear it!"

Then an expert in the Law got up to test him and said, "Master, what must I do to make sure of eternal life?"

Jesus said ot him,

"What does the Law say? How does it read?"

He answered,

"You must love the Lord your God with your whole heart, your whole soul, your whole strength, and your whole mind,' and 'your neighbor as you do yourself.' "

Jesus said to him,

"You are right. Do that, and you will live."

But he, wishing to justify his question. said,

"And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied,

"A man was on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he fell into the hands of robbers, and they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be going that way, and when he saw him, he went by on the other side of the road. And a Levite also came to the place, and when he saw him, he went by on the other side. But a Samaritan who was traveling that way came upon him, and when he saw him he pitied him, and he went up to him and dressed his wounds with oil and wine and bound them up. And he put him on his own mule and brought him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out a dollar and gave it to the inkeeper and said, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you spend I will refund to you on my way back.' Which of these three do you think proved himself a neighbor to the man who fell into the robber' hands?"

He said,

"The man who took pity on him."

Jesus said to him,

"Go and do so yourself!"

MRS. ROSELLA STROTHER SURPRISED BY REBEKAHS

Mrs. Rosella Strother, district deputy president of Rebekahs, was the guest of honor at a birthday surprise pulled off at her home, 333 West California, by about sixty of her friends among the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Thursday night.

When the guests appeared at her door about 8 p. m. they found their hostess had been spirited away by Mr. Strother, who was in the secret, and who had some difficulty in persuading his unsuspecting wife to return by 9:30. Meanwhile, however, the visitors entertained themselves with holiday games. It was a celebration of Mrs. Strother's birthday and she admitted she was completely surprised and that she thoroughly enjoyed it. She was also the recipient of many birthday remembrances. Refreshments were served by Mr. Strother with the assistance of Mrs. Goldthwaite, a neighbor.

The Royal Stock company members and cast have become instantaneous favorites this week and if their future offerings maintain the high standard they have established with "Smilin' Through," the cozy theater at Lexington and Central avenue is sure to be packed every week. The matinee tomorrow afternoon will start at 2:30 and tomorrow night will be the last performance of "Smilin' Through."

Is Your Watch a Timepiece or only an Ornament?

THERE is nothing which violates the laws of good taste quite as much as a wrist watch worn when it won't keep time.

Yet how often a watch is selected for appearance alone, with dependability taken for granted—only to prove that it wears all its beauty and value on the outside.

It is in this respect that BULOVA watches invariably differ. Were you to select a watch for beauty alone, you would undoubtedly select a BULOVA, for BULOVA cases are the most beautiful that artists can design. But, equally important, BULOVA works are made by craftsmen whose duty and pride it is to make accurate watches. Thus, the movement of even the least expensive BULOVA is invariably worthy of the richest setting.

When you next select a watch, whether a miniature wrist watch or a man's pocket watch—whether a $25 watch or a $2,500 watch—look for the name BULOVA. Having found it, you have assured yourself not only of outward beauty, but of beauty and accuracy combined—true beauty that is useful as well as ornamental.

We invite you to call and examine the watches here illustrated.

Bulova Watches range in price from $25 to $1500

CHRISTMAS JOY FOR THE YOAKUM FAMILY

ised and others will be welcome.

A dining room table large enough for all the "kiddies" to gather around for their Christmas dinner is urgently needed. There is a lack also of enough dishes and a number of additional kitchen utensils. A kitchen table likewise could be used as well as several small bureaus. The youngsters have been trained to be tidy—but it is mighty hard when there is no place to put anything.

The larder is being well stocked with groceries—but then it takes a lot of food for so many mouths. Five dollars' worth of groceries were delivered Wednesday by the Welfare bureau and yesterday the supply looked as though it had been attacked by pirates. Several dozen jars of preserves and a box of apples have been placed in the pantry. To cap the climax, this morning food left over last night at the football banquet is being placed in the cooler and some of it is turkey. So it might be said that the family is living upon the fat of the land.

The Glendale Humane society last night set aside five bright five-dollar gold pieces to be presented to Mrs. Yoakum. This morning's mail brought a check for $5 from C. M. Walton of 1131 North Central avenue and last night a check of $10 from W. S. Rattray of 286 Kenneth road and a check for $25 from the Press family were given to Mr. Yoakum. Together with donations of $7 from neighbors and $10 from the Welfare bureau and $5 from C. E. Kimlin this makes $87 in cash.

Then Mrs. Saul Frank of 214 North Central avenue is giving a lot of dishes, two heaters and three rugs, while Willard and Robert Asken of 544 West Lexington are contributing some toys, Mrs. Susie Sullivan of 1715 West Fourth street a cot, mattress and bedding, and Farlanders of 354 Riverdale drive a child's bed.

"I don't know how to thank the people of Glendale for what they have done," stated Mr. Yoakum gratefully last night after his return from his first full day's work upon a municipal street gang and somewhat stiff from his labors. He is confident that before long he will be able to secure an office position in which he will be able to demonstrate his ability as a bookkeeper.

impeachment. Several firms of unscrupulous lawyers are reported to have received lucrative compensation for arranging clemency. Several pardoned convicts immediately interested themselves in new crimes.

"Oklahoma is a state of tremendous resources—mineral, industrial and agricultural," commented Dr. Boyd. "It is one of the great producers of lead, zinc and coal. Business has been very dull buit is beginning to get better now."

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS ALL ABOUT SEWERS

of by the water and power departments but commented on the fact that the power department recently borrowed $500,000 and is regarded by Councilman W. C. Mushet as insolvent.

"If we vote this sewer," he declared, "Glendale is going to double in population. We will have 100,000 here before we know it. Suppose the assessed valuation goes only to $60,000,000 That would give us a tax rate, because of the sewers, of only $2.03 for the second year.

"If we want Glendale to grow as it should grow, we have got to vote the sewer bonds. Glendale has been held up, of course, as the fastest growing city in America. Let us keep it there! Let each man work and put this bond issue over!"

Mayor Spencer Robinson made a short talk in which he said: "The sewer is vital to Glendale. If we don't get one, we are gone!"

A short, fiery, spirited oration was made by Councilman William A. Horn, who called attention to the fact that the world has been advised that Glendale has no sewers and, should a negative vote be registered January 9, home seekers will refuse to come here in the expectation of getting sewer connections in a short time.

"This sewer will cost us nothing," he exclaimed. "The increased valuation of property will take care of its easily."

Statistics concerning the proposed sewer line were submitted by Engineer Chester Smith for Burns & McDonnell. He stated that it will be large enough to accomodate a population of 1,000,000 people and will have a capacity of about 52,000,000 gallons per day—2,000,000 gallons per day more than the 50,000,000 per day Los Angeles proposed to dump into the $12,000,000 outfall sewer now under construction."

"Now we have come to the critical time," asserted W. E. Hewitt, chairman of the chamber of commerce sewer committee. "Under no consideration is the city of Glendale going to get stung. This is the time that you have got to work. The biggest thing is to get the people interested."

Lyman P. Clark, chairman of the sewer publicity committee, acted as program chairman.

"This is the biggest thing that has come up in Glendale," he stated, "and the most important. Don't be lulled into lethargy on the sewer question and think that it is going over without effort. There is a lot of opposition. Not open, of course, but the same crowd that is opposed to it interfered with the widening of Broadway."

Christmas spirit prevailed at the luncheon at which President Lyman P. Clark presided. Tables bore miniature Christmas trees and tinsel decorations. Led by O. W. Andresen and accompanied by "Herb" Henning, the 80 Kiwanians joined in singing "Holy Night," To the clinking of glasses they also sang with vigor "Jingle Bells."

A feature of the luncheon was the presentation to Edward Rapier of 446 Pioneer drive, newspaper carrier, of a new bicycle. He was introduced by Dr. "Jack" Anderson of 104 West California avenue and in great glee rode about the dining room encircling the banquet tables.

Here's wishing all of you a very merry one and a very happy one —from Bonnie Jeanne. Make the most of the last two shopping days.

TOURING THE SHOPS WITH BONNIE JEANNE

THE SACRED PRECEDENT

The first Christmas was heralded with singing.

According to Biblical lore, angels established the first precedent in Christendom. From that day to this it has been the custom to announce to the world at each Yuletide season the happiness of the day with singing.

The beautiful custom of singing Christmas carols is again enjoying wide favor, for humanity is beginning to learn the value of music and its relation to the peace and happiness of mankind, after all of the centuries which have passed since the first Christmas day.

Perhaps that is why, in considering gifts at Christmas time the thoughts of so many turn toward musical instruments—as gifts that are capable of carrying the expression of the widespread joy. The piano stands foremost among musical instruments as a gift which every member of the family and friends of the family will enjoy. The selection of a piano is a matter of ease, providing the choice is made at the PIANO EXCHANGE, 112 West Broadway, where both new and used pianos of many makes may be purchased on easy terms. A liberal allowance will be made on your old piano.

HIS DREAM OF HAPPINESS

In the heart of every boy is the longing for a "bike." He will never forget the Christmas day when Santa Claus left him a "bike," and that when he went for his first spin in dizzy ecstacy, he was the envy of the neighborhood. If you have a boy in your home, humor him this once. At MARLETT BROTHERS CYCLE CO., 110 South Maryland, the bicycle and tricycles are well made and durable, and handsomely equipped.

HE HAS HIS OWN

A man has his own reasons for valuing the gift of a watch. For one thing, he needs it countless times during the day—he likes to be able to respond when asked the time of day, and then—as was said before, he has his own reasons—perhaps easy to guess. Give him one of the new series Hamiltons or an incomparable Waltham. Ask to see the new shipment at ART H. DIBBERN'S Jewelry Store, 121 North Brand.

ILLUMINATED SHELL FLOWERS

Very beautiful is a long spray of flowers made of translucent shells. The flowers are of different colors and inside each is concealed a tiny electric light bulb. The spray could be formed into a wreath and used as a table decoration.

LAST CALL

This is the last call to Toyland! Don't despair if you haven't yet found what you seek for the childrtn. C. R. O'NEIL, STATIONER, 231 North Brand, has anticipated your wants, and his store is replete with toys, books, stationery, and novelties to brighten the Yuletide giving. You still have Saturday and Monday in which to make your search successful, and take a hint from Bonnie Jeanne—don't miss C. R. ONEIL'S store.

SPECIAL SHIPMENT

Here's an invitation to select your stationery from an absolutely new assortment, contained in a delayed shipment that has just been received at the AHLMANN DRUG CO., 200 South Brand. High-grade stationery is a gift that is appreciated, and you will be glad of an opportunity to select from fresh stock so late in the holiday season.

The Paris Shoppe

STYLE WITHOUT EXTRAVAGANCE

It is never too late to learn, but one can be too late to take advantage of an opportunity. Bonnie Jeanne wants to remind you that there are just two more days in which to shop before Christmas, and that the PARIS SHOPPE, 233 North Brand, between Wilson and California, is prepared to meet your every want in women's wearing apparel, novelties and bags. All are gifts she will cherish as long as they last. Prices are reduced from one-fourth to one-third on all dresses.

LET IT BE HANDKERCHIEFS

Certainly let it be a box of dainty handkerchiefs — the never-failing ever-useful gift. Handkerchiefs galore, hand embroidered, in white and all of the shades of the rainbow, you will see at WILLIAMS' DRY GOODS STORE, 103 North Brand. You may still choose from a wide variety of high-grade goods.

IT MAY BE SHORT

There was a time when the saying, "A woman's crowning glory is her hair," carried with it the understanding that it must be long,—but that time is past, according to beauty experts who report that locks are being shorn daily, and that bobbed hair has never been so popular as it is to be in 1924. Not only are women bobbing their hair, but they are realizing the practical value of short locks and are having them permanently waved, thereby disposing of the ever-present hairdressing problem. Now when you receive the Christmas check, it would be the most sensible way to spend it, if you have your hair permanently waved at the PALACE GRAND BEAUTY SHOPPE, in Jensen's Palace Grand building, North Brand. The operators there are experts and will tell you authentically the vogue.

COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN

Is the name of a good stage play, but in real life, a woman spends much of her time in the kitchen and therefore is in a position to appreciate modern conveniences that are instrumental in lightening the work of the kitchen. There are so many appliances both electrical and for use on gas stoves especially designed to lighten the work in the kitchen and brighten the existence of the housewife, that Bonnie Jeanne urges a gift of this sort, which may be selected from a wide variety at the WILSON-BELL HARDWARE CO., 225 North Brand.

Give a Thor cleaner or washing machine this year. GLENDALE ELECTRIC CO., 132 North Brand, agents.

IMPORTED APPETIZERS

Include something "different" on the Christmas menu this year. Do you know that there are appetizing dainties from every country in Europe and the Orient, in varieties such as you little dreamed, to be had in Glendale at the JAPAN ART & TEA CO.? Anchovies, sardines, dressings, cordials, candied ginger, tea, Java and Mocha coffee—almost countless varieties—unsurpassed in Southern California. Your guests will be pleased with a surprise like this.

MAGIC SMOKE

Incense has come into its own in America—and with its coming, highly perfected perfumes have been introduced to those who love the allurement in the gently rising, wreathing smoke. Bonnie Jeanne was delighted, as you will be, with Kwush Ru, the burning perfume, which remains sweet and refreshing as long as it remains in the room. Also there are some charming new numbers in Vantines, and many novelty burners, at ROBERTS & ECHOLS DRUG CO., Brand and Broadway.

MAKE IT JOYOUS

With the beauty of flowers and the singing of birds, bring cheer into the home this Christmas. You'll find imported rollers, happily singing, in the midst of a flowery background, where potted poinsettas, cyclamen, ferns, heather and cut flowers vie with each other in suggesting the season of giving, at WARREN'S FLOWER SHOP, corner Kenwood and Broadway. Phone Glendale 752. The heather has been grown in the pots.

FOR HIM Gentleman's Bracelet Watch

THE LASTING GIFT

A gold watch is a lasting gift that is valued as long as it lasts. The new offerings in these bracelet watches, in green gold, white gold and yellow gold, are highly attractive and of supreme worth as gifts. Bonnie Jeanne found Elgin, Waltham and Swiss makes, ranging in price from $15 to $80, and also an attractive offering in gentlemen's pocket watches ranging from $15 to $60 at R. L. COLE'S JEWELRY STORE, 106 East Broadway. Phone Glendale 2116-J.

TRY AGAIN

You may have searched in seven cities for the gift for some particular friend or member of the family, and failed to find it, but if you visit TREGEA'S GIFT AND ART SHOP, 102 East Harvard, Bonnie Jeanne believes you will find it—such is her faith in the delightful and unique assortment of gift suggestions to be found there. It might be anything from a greeting card to the reproduction of a famous masterpiece—don't give up until you have visited TREGEA'S (Tree-gay's),

A steamer rug of grey-blue plaided in tan is a pleasant companion to have on one's travels these cold days. It combines much decorative quality with great warmth.

HEALTH—

Happiness—Success—To be happy or to attain a marked degree of success, one must have health. If you do not possess good health, see DR. HAWMAN, 221 West Broadway, who has had phenomenal success in helping people to regain health, and can help you, for helping folks is one of the great joys of her life. Dr. Hawman asks Bonnie Jeanne to tell all readers of Bonnie Jeanne's page that she wished them health, happiness and success throughout the coming year.

A CREATIVE PASTIME

The joys of creation can be realized by everyone industrious enough to wield a bronzing brush. Plain, characterless plaster of paris book-ends, candle-sticks and incense burners are transformed in a few minutes' interesting and fascinating pastime into adornments for the home, and the beauty of doing the bronzing oneself is that the colors to match or blend with the other furnishings of the home may be used.

The most satisfactory method of bronzing is to first go over the surface with the bronzing fluid and then dust on the bronze powder, which may be obtained in 30 different shades at HARRY MOORE CO., Inc., 304 East Broadway. For bronzing radiators and other metal surfaces, it is best to mix bronze with the liquid and apply like paint.

TINY VANITY A WRIST PENDANT

A narrow bracelet of grey suede has dangling from it a tiny vanity somewhat like a parachute in shape. These odd little trifles come in different colors and are edged with very fine steel beads.

ALL OF THEM

Perhaps it's a wagon he wants
Or an auto with shiny red wheels
Animals fierce or a domino set
Or a little tin whistle that squeals.
All of these treasures and more
Wanted by both girls and boys
Such as washing machines and big guns
And the jolly mechanical toys.
Bonnie Jeanne found in looking around
In FERBER'S new toyland supreme
Where Santa Claus emptied his bag—
At least that is how it would seem.
Only two days now are left
And if you should shop there at night
The wonderful toys on display
Will be such an enchanting sight.
FERBER'S new store, Broadway at Maryland, is meeting with Glendale's demand.

USEFUL GIFT FOR BOUDOIR

Pale grey leather delicately tooled in gold is a safe choice for a glove box, hair net case and other boudoir necessities.

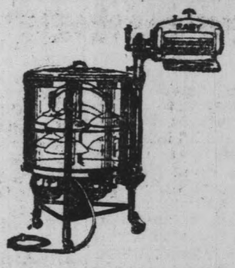
CHARMING NEGLIGEE

A negligee of great charm is made of violet silk that shades from pale lavender to deep mauve and is quilted in a large design over the entire surface.

"EASY" AUTOGRAPH

"When you stand before the tub
Think of me before you rub."



The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

That is the message of the Easy vacuum electric washer—for it does the work with such ease that the woman who uses a wash board is making work out of something that might be like play. The GOOD HOUSEKEEPING SHOP, 140 South Brand, will make a demonstration in the home without obligating you.

Spanish Comb in New Guise

The high Spanish comb is with us again in a new guise. Covered with small smooth feathers and brilliantly colored, it has much to commend it in the way of chic.

THE TELLTALE

Rajah Linen carries with it a reputation. It is chosen by the discriminating correspondent who realizes that the kind of stationery used leaves a distinct impression upon the mind of the one addressed. In giving stationery bear this in mind. A complete offering in many styles and colors will be seen at the BROADWAY PHARMACY, 400 East Broadway.

Useful Envelope Bag

Extremely useful is a black leather envelope bag of very fine grain thickly studded with nail heads. Inside there is a long mirror and several compartments for change, bills, etc.

THE HEROIC ACT

It was a small boy's hand that kept the angry waves from sweeping through the hole in the dike—a small preventative which averted disaster. Did it ever occur to you that that is the role of the plumber today?

A small defect in plumbing should be attended to at once, for invariably it will develop into a source of serious trouble. Bonnie Jeanne has in mind a Glendale firm, "where service is pleasure," and where the repair department is equipped to do all kinds of repair work at the least possible cost to the customer—for their machines come to your home with all of the necessary apparatus to do the job—and there isn't any of that "plumber's forgetfulness" to try one's patience and pocketbook. Bonnie Jeanne refers to the JEWEL CITY PLUMBING CO., 526 East Broadway, where they place the maximum value upon a satisfied customer. Phone Glendale 2779.

GAY LITTLE GARTERS

Gay little garters of orange satin ribbon have bunches of cherries made of black velvet and attached to long stems. These cherries are loosely caught at the side and dangle in a most realistic manner.

IN MAKE-BELIEVE LAND

One must have a cosy little house and adorable sets of furniture to place in it. The child will think her fairy god-mother has waved a magic wand when she sees the tiny house and furniture which Santa Claus found at the BROADWAY VARIETY STORE, 634½ East Broadway. He reports very low prices on these furniture sets, as well as on doll buggies, coasters, mechanical toys and games.

TO BRIGHTEN BLACK DRESS

A bouquet of small gardenias in various colors will add a touch of brightness to the all-black dress. The flowers may also be bought singly in lavender, white or faint pink.

MY BOOKS

are my priceless treasures, many a wayfarer has said. In a book given by a loved one lies sentiment that has no expression in words or in any other token, for the book itself is a friend, and if given by a loved one, it is twice blessed. At Glendale's only little BOOK NOOK, 102 South Maryland, there are beloved books for young and old—some just from the publisher, some that have stood the test of years, some—just books.

TINY PHOTOGRAPH HOLDER

A tiny silver box opens to show a folding compartment for small pictures. There are places for four photographs of diminutive size.

SHE WANTS ONE

The uses of a cedar chest are legion. As a storage place for clothing, it has no equal. As a convenient place just to "put" things, a cedar chest cannot be equalled. As a gift to Milady, the cedar chest puts every other gift suggestion out of the running, particularly if the recipient should happen to be a "Miss." Many a Miss has cast covetous glances at the array of beautiful cedar chests shown at the RUSSELL-PIERCE FURNITURE CO., 1529-31 South San Fernando Road, and has pictured what she would place in one, and has conjured up her own little dream of happiness with the very thought. It would be a pity to say "Wake up, little girl, you're just dreaming pretty dreams." One cannot reckon the consequences—it would be so much better for her to hear, "But I'll make your dreams come true."

SERVE FRESH CANDY

Don't take a chance of serving your Christmas guests with stale candy. It might very easily happen, but it isn't at all necessary, when there is a little candy shop in Glendale where all candies are home-made—wholesome and fresh, and most delicious.

Bonnie Jeanne speaks of LEAH HOLZER'S shop of home-made candies, 113 West Broadway. There are chocolates, that melt in the mouth, priced 60 and 80 cents a pound, and the indispensable Christmas mix, ribbon candies, and candy canes from the very small to the very large. The Christmas tree will not be complete, without numbers of these bright canes among its branches.

"That would be pretense," said Grace, very soberly.

'PEACE, BE STILL,' WATCHWORD OF LEGION

Weekly Bulletin Comes—Beautiful Message to Buddies, One and All

Rarely have we read a more beautiful message than that sent out in the American Legion Weekly Bulletin, Gene Harrison, editor, in its issue of December 15. The Bulletin is the official publication of all the Legion posts of Los Angeles county. Read it, everyone of you, slowly and understandingly, in the quietude of the home, and you will appreciate the sweet holy sentiment that pervades its every sentence. Here it is:

An unusual quiet had settled over Bethlehem. It lay sleeping in the valley of content, lulled into lassitude by the soothing enfolding of the velvety night. A dim gleam of light shone here and there in the sleeping city, keeping silent company to the shepards of the hills and their flocks lying beside still waters.

Petals of color panel the sky; the soft glow of a great star blooms into the night.

Three Wise Men journey silently across the valley, unhurried, unhasting, and halt before a lone light. All is quiet in the stable, peaceful and still.

The Christ is born.

Perhaps the angels were singing their joyous songs of silence among the rejoicing stars; perhaps the stars were twinkling their rays of benevolence upon the earth, wishing to share with men the tender sweetness that comes of blessing.

The whole world, the very elements, paid to Him the perfect tribute—silence, peaceful silence.

The Beautiful Babe lay in the manger. The lowly Nazarene had home to establish the Kingdom of Heaven, Peace on Earth, Peace in the hearts of all; the Lion shall lie down with the Lamb.

And when shall this peace be?

No man knows.

We address you modestly who have fought for it. A strange way, perhaps, to secure peace. But we believed that we were at war to end war, to bring about a peace that shall not perish. We treasure that ideal; it is very precious to us.

Somehow, in the innermost recesses of every allied soldier heart, he felt vaguely that he was a Christian Crusader, a crusader none the less than the martyred men who fought to preserve Christianity when others would have stifled it at birth.

But a few years ago the Armistice was signed, signifying the end of war to end war, the beginning of the everlasting reign of peace on earth, a step toward the establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven, the dwelling of love and mutual helpfulness in the hearts of all.

The soldier felt that he was following ever so humbly in the footsteps of the Master, conducting himself in a far different manner to accomplish the same end. He walked with Him, and he talked with Him.

He stripped fear from their hearts, put an unbelievable endurance into their weary bodies, a glorious zeal into their purpose to carry on for the sake of Him and humanity, and they turned their faces with cheerful resolution to the enemy—and death.

Christ upon the Battlefield!

Yes, Christ was there, there amid suffering and death, consoling and comforting.

Many noble spirits journey on with him, journeyed into the Great Unknown, but not before the vision of Him had left the imprint of beatific smiles upon their faces; buddies "Going West" to carry on in a greater life, life everlasting with Him.

It is good to know this; it is consoling to believe it, to believe with the simple faith, unquestioning, as unquestioning as some of our dying buddies believed it as they whispered their visions and His promise with the last breath of their soaring spirits.

With a faith so fresh and fragrant, may it not turn the sobs of grief into silent songs of sweet consolation.

May we not be touched with an equally great faith? May we not have our visions of the Kingdom of Heaven, of holy life on earth?

Christ says that we may.

We have but to believe. We have but to become as little children, believing without question, and happiness immeasurable, a peace beyond understanding will unfold to us.

Then we may look out upon the world in its present travail, as the disciples looked from their boat upon the stormy sea of Galilee, with the same assurance that the selfish seething sea of humanity may be quieted.

"Peace, be still."

TOWN SUPPLIES ELECTRICITY FREE

[By Associated Press]

IDITAROD, Alaska, Dec. 21.—This town, in the heart of a gold placer district, finds it unnecessary this year to make a tax levy.

The municipality has a reserve of $3,500 in the treasury. Revenues from federal licenses will amount to more than the expenses of the town government.

It is planned to build a municipal electric plant out of the surplus and to furnish the current free to residents.

Iditarod has a winter population of about 22. In summer, during the mining season, several hundred are here.

Many a man lives poorly in order to die rich.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

A Brief History

By FRANK P. LITSCHERT

(Believing that the history of the Republican party is the history of the American nation since 1856, the Daily Press has concluded to publish, in moderate daily installments, Frank P. Litschert's brief history of the same, which is written in a temperate, unbiased manner, free from invective and charitable in its treatment of the opposition. We realize that our Democratic readers will not agree with many of the statements in this presentation, yet, to paraphrase Ellis Parker Butler's famous aphorism, "Facts is facts." So, with a firm belief in this brief history as a relation of the main events in the illustrious career of the great party which has played so great a part in the history of our beloved country and the kindliest feeling toward the "opposition," we present the opening chapter).

CHAPTER ONE
THE GENESIS OF REPUBLICANISM

It is not easy to name the exact dates on which the present Republican and Democratic parties were born. Each party developed gradually from the issues of the first half of the nineteenth century and these issues were not always clearly defined. The modern Democrats often refer to Thomas Jefferson as the founder of their party yet Thomas Jefferson was an enthusiastic exponent of the doctrine of protection for American industries—one of the cardinal principles of the Republican party since 1856.

Andrew Jackson, too, is hailed by Democrats of the twentieth century as one of the early heroes of their party, yet Andrew Jackson gained his greatest prominence while President by checkmating the attempted secession of the state of South Carolina, thereby upholding two principles which certainly have not been fundamental in political Democracy, that of the supremacy of national over state rights and the principle of the protective tariff.

While it is the common impression now that political lines were much more tightly drawn in the earlier days of the republic than in the twentieth century, the truth is that while partisan prejudices were often violent, there were occasions when political lines vanished almost entirely. Political parties were born, gained national prominence, and died with much greater frequency than now. Party passions rose high but political principles were not so clearly defined. The partisanship against which Washington warned his countrymen in the Farewell Message was the partisanship of personal and foreign factionalism.

The great and overshadowing issue during the first half of the nineteenth century was of course the extension of human slavery. Political parties were national rather than sectional. There were Northern Democrats who opposed extension of slavery and Southern Whigs who did not disapprove it. The inevitable results were compromise, a beclouding of the issue and the consequent postponement of ultimate solution of the problem.

An Effective Threat

The Southern states were from the first insistent on the guarantee of their right to hold slaves and in 1787 when the Federal Constitution was drawn, insisted that without slavery there would be no Union. The threat was effective then as later.

In the earliest days of the republic the Southern states were ambitious to become manufacturing centers and did not oppose a tariff for the upbuilding of American industries. Cotton raising was an expensive and not always a profitable industry and had conditions remained unchanged it is likely that the slavery question would have solved itself by process of elimination.

But the invention of the cotton gin changed all of this. It made cotton growing much more profitable and therefore popular, and so greatly increased the demand for slaves. And this cooled the manufacturing ambitions of the South, converting the people to the doctrine of free trade. The reason for this is easy to see. Cotton did not need a protective tariff, since it was raised by slave labor and the cotton grower felt that it was more profitable to him to buy European goods manufactured by cheap labor in exchange for his slave-produced cotton. He got the benefit of the cheap labor both ways. He wolud not accept the theory that after all his greatest market would be in America and that a policy which had for its aim the upbuilding of all sections of the country would ultimately be most profitable to him.

Notwithstanding therefore, that Washington, John Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams and Jackson had supported the doctrine of protection, there was a great outcry in the South against the protective tariff bill of 1828. The law was defended ably by Henry Clay and other senatorial leaders and was denounced by John C. Calhoun, of South Carolina a former protectionist. The tariff was somewhat modified in 1832 but was still unsatisfactory to the South because it did not provide for free trade.

Ordinance of Nullification

South Carolina was especially bitter against the bill and the legislature of the state authorized a convention which subsequently passed an Ordinance of Nullification. This ordinance declared the tariff acts of 1828 and 1832 to be null and void, so far as South Carolina was concerned. Governor Hayne then proceeded to prepare the forces of the state for war. Warning was given that if the Federal government attempted to enforce the collection of the tariff with the army or navy by closing the ports of South Carolina, the state would leave the Union and form a separate government.

President Jackson, however, disposed of the doctrine of nullification in a forceful state paper in which he said:

"I consider, then, the power to annul a law of the United States, assumed by one state, incompatible with the existence of the Union, contradicted expressly by the letter of the Constittuion, unauthorized by its spirit, inconsistent with every principle on which it was founded, and destructive of the great object for which it was formed."

Calhoun himself listened to the reading of this paper in the senate and began to weaken. Senator Henry Clay found an easy way out of the difficulty for South Carolina by proposing a "compromise" tariff. This was gladly accepted by Calhoun and the nullifiers. The Ordinance of Nullification was abandoned and the crisis was over.

The issue of slavery extension, however, was at all times more important than that of the tariff. The reason for the passing of the nullification ordinance was not altogether dissatisfaction with the triff. The ordinance was a trial balloon sent up by the pro-slavery strategists to see how the doctrine of secession would be received by the country. Jackson himself wrote to an intimate friend in 1833 stating of the South Carolina nullification: "The tariff was a pretext, the next will be the slavery or the negro question."

A Continual Struggle

But the North with its manufactories and farms conducted with free labor soon began outstripping the South in wealth and population and there was a continual struggle by the Southern politicians to keep their political strength equal to that of the North in the national Congress, so that the growth of slavery might not be interfered with. It was, of course, impossible to do this in the House of Representatives, whose members are elected in accordance with population. So it was in the senate that the slave power made its stand.

Again and again the senators from the slave states found the threat of secession to be their most formidable weapon. When confronted by a determined effort to curb the extension of slave territory they would come back with the threat, "either we will have our way or we will secede and dissolve the Union." For over a half century this threat was effective and compromise after compromise favorable to slavery was gained from the more powerful North.

For a time it was believed that the so-called Missouri compromise, adopted in 1820 had settled the question. This compromise admitted Missouri as a slave state, but prohibited slavery in all of the remainder of that territory acquired from France in the Louisiana purchase lying north of thirty-six degrees thirty minutes north latitude, but provided for the returning to their masters of fugitive slaves captured in this territory. The acquistion of Texas, too, for the moment strengthened the hands of the slave party.

But the North continued to outstrip the South in the race for wealth and population and in a few years it became evident to slavocracy that if it desired to continue to hold an equal balance of power in the United States senate something more must be done. The Missouri compromise of 1820, of course, stood in the way and thirty years after this law had been hailed as a final solution of the slavery question a movement was set on foot in the South to bring about its nullification so that more slave states might be carved out of the west.

Early in the fifties a movement was inaugurated in Missouri which had for its purpose the carrying of slavery into the territory of Nebraska. This movement bore fruit in 1854 when Senator Stephens A. Douglas, Democrat, of Illinois, introduced a bill, designed to divide the territory of Nebraska in two parts, the southern part to be known as Kansas. This proposed legislation became known as the Kansas-Nebraska bill and it provided that the settlers in the two territories should have the right to decide whether or not they would have slavery.

After Heated Debate

The bill was passed by Congress after heated debate, and it, of course, set aside the Missouri compromise because the territory was north of the no-slavery line provided for in the compromise of 1820.

Immediately there started a desperate struggle between the slave forces and the freemen for the possession of Kansas. Slave holders from Missouri, armed with guns, crossed into the new territory and seized lands and soon the New England states sent free settlers to checkmate them. The territory was torn by cruel guerilla warfare for the next five or six years and the outrages which were committed by the "Border Ruffians" during this time form a dark page in the history of American development. In the end the free-state men won and Kansas was admitted to the Union a commonwealth opposed to slavery.

The repudiation of the Missouri compromise by the passage of the Kansas-Nebraska bill and the border warfare which followed sent a tremendous wave of indignation through the North and anti-slavery sentiment grew by leaps and bounds. It was felt that the end of compromise was reached. Each arrangement made with the slavocracy had been repudiated in turn and a new arrangement entered into more favorable to the slave power, because of the threat of secession which was continually held by the Southern states over the nation.

People of the North were beginning to believe that the time was at hand for a showdown. The Whig party because of its compromising policies was in the throes of dissolution and the Democratic organization was firmly in the grip of the South. People on every hand commenced to say that the time was ripe for a new party, one which would have for its purpose the preservation of the Constitution and the Union, and the prevention of any further encroachments by the slave power on free soil.

That new organization, as later events proved, was to be the Republican party which was to produce in the hour of the nation's greatest peril a man to solve American constitutional government—and that man was Abraham Lincoln.

BOYS' CLOTHING ONLY AT W. O. RICHARDS' BIG STORE

People have often heard of the exclusive men's shop, but a shop where only boys' clothing is sold is quite a rarity. But not so in Glendale for W. O. Richards has recently brought to this city Our Boys' Shop, located at 106 West Broadway, where boys' goods only are sold. Everything for the boy is in stock, there being furnishings for the youngster of two or three years to first long pants suits for the young man. Mothers can safely take their boys to this shop and expect the best, the stock being only the best, and also the largest in the city.

"The Christmas rush has proven a great one," states Mr. Richards, "people preferring to buy gifts for the children at the only exclusive boys' shop in the city. Our business has increased rapidly since our opening several months ago, the demand for high grade boys' clothing being greater than was expected."

The store will remain open evenings till Christmas and several experienced clerks are in charge to give quick and efficient service.

BLARE OF MUSIC TO USHER IN THE 1924 ROSE TOURNAMENT

PASADENA, Dec. 21.—Floral floats, automobiles and equipages of every description, to the number of more than one hundred, bugle, fife, drum and the blare of brass, under soft banners in blue and gold, will usher in Pasadena's fiftieth year as a California municipality and the thirty-fifth annual Tournament of Roses, New Year's morning, at 10:30.

In the parade, 25 sister cities of the southland will be represented, interspersed by 25 famous bands and other musical organizations contributing their notes of rejoicing over the finished work, which has been the thoughtful constant care of thousands of decorators and artisans for the past fortnight. University of California Glee club and Jazz band, Covina, Compton and other bands will parade over the line of march early New Year's morning, giving concerts to the waiting tens of thousands, before the stately line of rose-bedecked entries begins to descend Colorado street hill.

Police and traffic arrangements this year, under the direction of Chairman David Blankenhorn, point to perfect facility in handling with comfort the 300,000 expected visitors. Maps to the number of 30,000 have been distributed over Southern California, containing simple directions for those wishing to see the Tournament parade. Congestion will be avoided, as never before, says Mr. Blankenhorn.

Harry M. Ticknor, chairman of the parade committee, himself grand exalted ruler of the Elks, will be the guest of the Tournament, giving a sterling cup to one of the 18 floral entries offered by Elkdom of Southern California cities, in his honor.

Santa Monica, Long Beach, Glendale, Ontario, Pomona, Redlands and a dozen other neighbor cities, will vie for the heavy sterling cups, put up by Pasadena chamber of commerce and civic association for the two most beautiful entries in the parade. This year there are early indications that novel and startling designs will be seen, departing from old standards of floral decoration in every way, and gardens all over the southland are commandeered to the last blossom to enrich the charming scene.

Interest centers in the historical pageant of Pasadena, which, with its 20 floats, will occupy a solid division in the center of the line of march. Miss Sybil Jones, who suggested this beautiful commemoration of Pasadena's Jubilee year, states that all the principal episodes from California's glittering page of history will be faithfully and beautifully depicted.

The Tournament ball at the Maryland New Year's night will fittingly close what will undoubtedly prove the greatest floral festival seen in America.

NISLE AND CARLOCK CAN SUPPLY MAN'S EVERY NEED

The Nisle clothing store at 135 South Brand is enjoying a very gratifying trade, many people giving suits and overcoats as gifts. The demand for highgrade suits and overcoats at economical prices is great this year, and the Nisle stock has been sold and replenished several times during the past few months. The famous Nisle two-pants suits have met decided favor in the city, hundreds of these having been sold during the two years of business by Mr. Nisle. In addition, a full line of tuxedo and full-dress suits are in stock, while a large assortment of sweaters and hats round out a well-filled clothing store.

In connection with Mr. Nisle, I. B. Carlock maintains a gents' furnishings department in the same store. A complete stock of shirts, ties, socks, etc., are in stock, and the entire line of furnishings will make excellent gifts for the man.

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Under a bower of dainty pink sweet peas and delicate ferns, Miss Cecil Mathews and Mr. George Mathews of Montrose exchanged the vows that made them man and wife.

The wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, 1243 South Westlake, Los Angeles. Over 100 guests, relatives and friends of the couple, were present. The ceremony was performed promptly at 8:30, Rev. Clark of Montrose officiating.

The pretty bride was resplendent in a gown of shimmery white brocaded satin. She wore a beautiful lace veil, crowned by a wreath of orange blossoms, and bore a bouquet of tiny Cecil Bruner roses. The bridesmaid was gowned in pink taffeta. Two little pages, a boy dressed in black velvet and satin, and a charming little miss in pink silk, attended.

Following the ceremony those present enjoyed several hours of dancing. It was while refreshments were being served that Mr. Charbonneau and his bride slipped away for their wedding trip, telling no one of their destination.

Upon their return to Montrose the newlyweds will make their home at Waltonia drive.

PERSONALS

MANY ADDITIONS TO SHELVES OF SOUTH BRANCH LIBRARY

An addition to the South Branch library which is very timely at this Christmas season is "The Book of Life," in eight volumes, under the editorship of Newton M. Hall and Irving F. Wood.

This work presents the literature and lessons of the Bible in such a form as to attract any one, especially younger readers. It is illustrated throughout by drawings of the old masters and famous modern artists and this feature of the work makes a complete history of Christian art.

The admirers of Harry Franck will be glad to know that they can now follow him in his wanderings through northern China, his book of that title having just arrived.

"Prohibition Inside Out" by Commissioner Haynes, throws much light on the interesting and difficult problem of enforcing the eighteenth amendment.

"Dramatics for School and Community" will be of much value to schools and others in presenting amateur theatricals, as it gives instructions for stage settings and the costumes appropriate for the different nationalities.

"My Musical Life," by Walter Damrosch, will appeal to all music lovers. "Rain" is the famous play by Colton and Randolph, adapted from the story of Somerset, Maugham.

"The Mind of the Spectator," under the editorship of Addison and Steele, by Rev. Canon Streatffeld is a delightful compilation of Addison's and Steele's thoughts on men, women, marriage, political life and other questions.

"In Need of Change," by Julian Street and "Rippling Ruby" by Fletcher are good fiction reading for vacation time.

"In the Shadows" or "Why Crime Does Not Pay," consists of thirty true detective stories by the famous dectective, Nick Harris.

Candle sticks of lustre reflect the candle light in a most delightful way.

"VON" IS NOW ALL BY HIS LONESOME

The many friends of O. E. Von Oven, prominent Glendale real estate man, are greeting him at his new location, 205 West Broadway. For several years Mr. Von Oven was asscoiated with Charles B. Guthrie. He will conduct a general real estate business, handling business property, residential acreage, etc., as well as insurance and loans. Mr. Von Oven is one of the biggest boosters for Glendale and the sewer bonds. He has been a resident of this city for thirteen years, four years of which he has been in the realty business, and has seen Glendale grow from a village of 2500 people to a busy city of its present size.

EAGLE ROCK NOTES

Mr. Kyle and family of 5246 Laroda, moved yesterday to their beautiful new home in Los Feliz Heights.

Don't forget to attend the food sale at the Women's clubhouse from 10 a. m. on. All sorts of goodies are to be sold. The Women's Twentieth Century club is putting on the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunlap of San Diego are coming up tomorrow to spend Christmas and New Year's with their daughter, Mrs. John C. Kraus of the Eagle Rock Music company. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Ely, sister of Mrs. Kraus, also of San Diego, and her two children.

The mail is still coming in fast; close to sixty sacks and 5 pouches were received this morning, and it is coming in special cars. It is necessary for the Los Angeles Railway to send out cars with mail only on them, as this time of the year everyone is mailing.

The Thursday Morning Musical club had a very interesting and delightful time at the home of Mrs. Johnstone of North Central avenue. Miss Frances Clapp, who by the way is a very delightful speaker, gave an interesting talk on her five years' experience as a musical teacher in one of the large universities of Japan. After the speech, refreshments were served, and the next meeting was announced. It will be held January 3, at the home of Mrs. Reed.

The Women's Twentieth Century club members will celebrate with a New Year's eve frolic. They will give a turkey dinner dance at 7 p. m. at the clubhouse. The club's president, Mrs. Reily, who is a Southern culinary artist, will have charge of the dinner herself. The committee in charge will distribute all sorts of little favors and will give prize dances. A very peppy five-piece orchestra has been secured which will assure you all a wonderful time. Come and bring your friends, and you will be sure to have a good time. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Lee, Garvanza 1003, or Mrs. Hannaford, Garvanza 1123.

Christmas departmental parties are being held for all the Sunday school children and young people of the Presbyterian church and Bible school this week. On Thursday afternoon the Cradle Roll beginners and primary departments held their parties. Two hundred and fifty children and parents were present to enjoy the program, games and eats. Santa Claus was there too. Friday evening the seniors will meet in the social hall for a jolly good time. Surprises are being planned by some of the classes. The junior and intermediate parties will be held Saturday afternoon, the juniors meeting in the ladies' parlor and the intermediates in the social hall. These parties are in charge of the superintendent and teachers of each department. Sunday morning there will be a special Christmas service. The pastor will preach on "The God of a Skin Face" and the choir will present a cantata. The Sunday school Christmas program will be presented at the afternoon vesper services at 4:30.

Although for a few days it was thought December would be a great month for building, the last few days have tended to disprove this. The following are the latest permits to be issued up to 9:45 this morning: Mr. Fred Greiner, private garage, 5111 Delaware avenue, $385; Charles Tully, private garage, 5039 Sierra Villa, $400; McMackin and Isaac, dwelling, 5076 Lausistimus, $2500; McMackin and Isaac, garage, 5076 Lauristimus, -300; E. J. Davis, garage, 1926 Chickesaw, $150; Mrs. O. Mettler, garage, 5046 Floristan, $100; Louie D. Thomas, dwelling, 1545-47 Chickesaw, $500.

This is a good time for the local people to buy their Christmas things at home. The downtown section is a seething mass of people and machnies. If you want to go into a store, it is necessary to almost fight your way in. Cars are not crowded only, they have people in them wedged together like sardines. When you want to get off it is necessary to start about three blocks beforehand; even then one cannot be sure of just where he will be able to alight. Driving with your machine is the same way. Maybe you will be able to cross the street and then again maybe you won't. It's like running an armored car through an army. Poking along about two miles an hour, stopping every ten feet and wondering if it will be possible to get home by dinner time, is now an everyday occurence. The best way to avoid all this is to do your buying and shopping where it is handiest. Let's do it at home, here in Eagle Rock.

PORTION OF CITIZENS' BUILDING IS USED BY PENDROY'S

Pendroy's Department store at 156 South Brand boulevard is now being enlarged through the acquisition of the rear half of the Citizens' building at 152 and 154 South Brand boulevard and remodeling is in progress already.

Burton McGinnis, agent for the building, this morning announced the signing of a lease between Earl C. Pendroy and William Gumbiner, Harry Gumbiner and Julius Lyons, all of Hollywood, owners of the Citizens' building.

"Pendroy's Second Floor Annex" will be the name of the new addition. It is to be made the store headquarters for special sales.

Workmen were busy this morning removing shelving and plumbing fixtures in the portion formerly used as a kitchen, which will be decorated and used without change of partitions. There is a difference of about five inches in the floor levels of the two buildings, but this will be overcome by an incline.

While Mr. Pendroy is not prepared to announce any strictly new departments, he says the fall and Christmas trade his store has enjoyed has demonstrated that more room is needed to properly house the increased stock of departments already established.

KNIGHTS COLUMBUS DSIPOSE OF LOTS AND TURKEYS

Who holds tickets 4102 and 285? These were the numbers first withdrawn by Mrs. Francis Lawlor, wife of Captain Lawlor, at the drawing for the Sparr Heights lot which took place Thursday night at the Knights of Columbus club house on East Lomita. The third ticket, number 9983, is held by Father Galvin, the parish priest. The lot committee, of which E. F. Bowler is chairman, and of which Messrs. Bryan, Mailloux, McMahon and Brennan are members, has no record of the holders of the two tickets first named and the award will therefore be held open for 30 days to give opportunity for the possessors of the tickets to report to Francis Wallace at the club house, 330 East Lomita. If they do not show up with the time mentioned, the lot will be deeded to Father Galvin.

Excitements of the evening were by no means limited to the lot drawing, however, as 41 turkeys were hold to the highest bidders by a very efficient group of barkers and salesmen in the persons of Michael Brennan, E. J. Albright, F. E. Albright Jr., Tom Smith, F. Huesman, John A. Coleman and Secretary Francis Wallace. They were ably assisted by E. McMahon, chairman of the turkey committee, B. F. Connell and P. J. Mulcahey being the other members.

No exact figures are obtainable at this writing, but Secretary Wallace estimated that turkey returns for the charity fund will run from $250 to $300. No turkeys were delivered but instead orders were given on the butchers who have them in stock, to the following: Joseph Van Riper, Joseph Curley, Mr. Ruprecht, Mr. Armour, Peter Moes, Mr. Stover, Mr. McQuaid, Dr. Crowell, Randolph Doll, Mr. Burgg, Mr. Pierce, H. Doll, Mr. Armount, J. Van Darbin, D. Burstein, H. M. Doll, F. J. Huesman, Capt. Lawlor, T. L. Fern, Mr. McCowan, Joseph P. Vanner, H. Munnich, C. D. Arge, F. E. Albright, John Ricter, George Stewart, J. Ricter and C. W. Cummings.

BURBANK NOTES

Burbank building permits issued yesterday were to Mrs. John Dietrich, 626 Santa Anita avenue, 3 rooms, $1500; H. G. Woodruff, Santa Anita avenue, 5 rooms and garage, $3000; Thos. J. Peterson, 710 Kenneth road, 3 rooms, $1200; C. M. Offill, 139 South Providencia avenue, garage, $200; Mrs. C. W. McConnell, 811 Orange Grove avenue, 5 rooms and garage, $3500; R. E. Tysee, Tujunga avenue, 2 rooms, $150; W. O. Chapman, 606 Tujunga avenue, garage, $100; Dr. Lane, 429 Tujunga avenue, 4 rooms, $2000.

A surprise dinner party was given in honor of the birthday of Col. Walter P. Story by the officers and men of the 160th Infantry of Southern California, at the Armory in Los Angeles, last Wednesday evening. There were several hundred guests present at the occasion, among them being Gen. Malinstadt, adjutant general of the state of California, whose headquarters are in Sacramento. After dinner a regimental review was held, this followed by a big military ball. It is needless to say that Col. Story was very much surprised and certainly did appreciate the honor extended to him.

The final contest for the best dancers in Southern California competing for the $1000 prize given by the Examiner, was held last night at the Ambassador hotel arena. There were about fifty couples entered from the various halls in California, R. Stuart Gifford, Pearl Harris, Verna Short and Mr. Thistlewhite representing the Palais Majestic in Burbank. The large arena was packed with about 5,000 spectators and was brilliantly lighted by incandescent lights and spotlights playing over the brilliant assembly. The judges of this contest were Lew Cody, film star; Olive Ann Alcorn, Follies beauty; Douglas Crane, portrait painter; Edith Lindsey, dancer, and Chas. H. Melvin, dancing master. A combined orchestra of musicians from Rutherford's, Cinderalla Roof, Bon Ton, Rose Room, Venice Dance hall and Solomon's furnished the music. Eighteen couples were eliminated on the grounds that they were professional dancers. Dancing exhibitions were given throughout the evening.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McKee of 130 West Chestnut street and daughter Mildred, accompanied by their niece, Marjorie Gunyon, and Howard Shinkle, attended the Indiana colony dance last night at Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gunyon, accompanied by Mrs. Gunyon's father, Mr. J. P. Love, arrived yesterday from Marion, Indiana, to spend some time here in Glendale. Mr. Love is a retired farmer. He is looking over real estate in Glendale, with the intention of buying and settling here.

Miss Marion Gamble of 125 West Los Feliz road and Miss Marion Russell of Wisconsin will be dinner guests of friends at Ocean Park on Sunday.

Mrs. B. F. Hoopes of Exeter is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. W. McQueen of 140 South Jackson street. She will remain over the holidays, returning with her son, who will motor down.

According to an eminent English writer of reminiscences there was an authoress a few decades ago who wrote and illustrated charming garden books. She was a Mrs. Loudon. In one of her works she yas anxious to include a sketch of the "Waterloo Beeches" at Strathfieldsaye, a clump of trees on the duke of Wellington's estate planted in commemoration of the downfall of the Corsician. Accordingly she wrote the duke of Wellington requesting leave to sketch the beeches and signing herself "J. Loudon." The duke, in spite of extreme age and dim insight, always insisted on attending to his own correspondence. He replied as follows: "The duke of Wellington presents his compliments to the bishop of London. The bishop is quite at liberty to make a sketch of the breeches which the duke wore at Waterloo if they can be found. But the duke is not aware that they differed in any way from the breeches he generally wears."

COMALT IS NOT ONLY A FINE DRINK BUT COOKING AID

The new chocolate malted milk, put up in bottles and known as Comalt, is rapidly gaining favor with the housewives of the city, it being a staple drink for children and can also be used to a great advantage in cooking. Pies, cakes, candies, ice cream and many other delicacies can be made with this delightful new syrup, which is made in Glendale at the factory of the S. W. Brown company, Los Feliz road and the S. P. tracks. This is indeed a great industry for this city, the splendid qualities of Comalt being rapidly broadcasted throughout the United States. It is served at all leading fountains in the city, both in syrup form and in the finished state.

Many people are giving Comalt as gifts this Christmas and according to Mr. Ross, manager of the company, no better and more-to-be-appreciated gift could be given. The properties of this new drink are such that it will keep indefinitely and the man who gives a case of it to his family will not only be giving them a delightful drink, but also a food. Comalt contains pure sugar and other ingredients which make it highly nutritious as a food and it is highly recommended by physicians.

In addition to this fine drink, the famous Green Hill beverages are manufactured by this firm, these also being distributed over a large part of the country.

PRESBYTERIAN S. S. CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

The Glendale Presbyterian Sunday School was out in force Thursday night for the Christmas exercises held in the three rooms of the social department of the church which had been decorated with greenery and two beautiful trees topped with a glistening star. In the front ranks were the youngsters for whom the entertainment had been specially planned, but it was noticed their elders who took seats in the background were just as much interested.

The big feature of the program was the Christmas play put on by the Intermediates under the direction of Mrs. A. T. Lewis, but juniors sang very sweetly and other departments, including the primary, participated.

A generous offering was collected for the Presbyterian orphanage at San Anselmo, and at the proper time the whole Sunday school, seniors included, was given a candy treat. Seldom has a pleasanter Christmas been enjoyed by this Sunday school, and these exercises, the first in the new building, set the pace for the future.

The regular meeting of the Loving Service circle of the Glendale Presbyterian church, set for Thursday, was postponed and the date will be announced later. It will be held at the church and the time will depend somewhat on the program of interior finishing as the circle is planning something special.

WHITE SOX WILL DO BATTLE WITH SAWTELLE BUNCH

Mike Donlin's Glendale White Sox will do battle with the Sawtelle horsehiders Sunday afternoon at the local baseball orchard in a Triple A league game. The game, while it has no direct bearing on the championship, will be hotly contested.

The White Sox have been so used to losing games lately that the fans have come to take it as a matter of course. However, they may be agreeably surprised Sunday, for Donlin has entirely rebuilt his Glendale nine, and only a very few of the original outfit will start the game tomorrow. It is expected that either Arnold Crandall or Heidler will receive the hurling assignement against Sawtelle.

Potentially, the White Sox have always been a strong team. On paper they have looked right along as the best outfit in the Triple A league, but it seems that they have not functioned in the expected way and as a result they are down at the bottom of standing, not in the cellar, but so close that one shove would push them the rest of the way down.

While Glendale and Sawtelle are playing on the local lot, two contests will be staged down toward the ocean that will have a great deal to do with deciding the championship of the league—San Pedro clashes with the Shell Oil outfit on the Signal Hill diamond while Wilmington meets the United Tool outfit at Wilmington. San Pedro and Wilmington are leading the league and promise to upset their opponents. The other game scheduled in the league will be at Palms, when the Palms-Culver City outfit will meet Santa Rita. The last mentioned team replaces Anaheim, which withdrew from the league as the result of a dispute over a player.

Announcement was recently made by the management of the Glendale baseball park that season tickets, entitling the holder to admission to every game played at the park, are being placed on sale for $10. The tickets are on sale at Cornwell & Kelty's.

SPORT -O- GRAMS

By FRANCIS W. READ

That the people of Glendale, the business men especially, appreciate what the championship football team of Glendale High school has done for the city in the way of publicity was evidenced at the banquet last night for the team at the First Christian church. The Rotary, Kiwanis and Exchange clubs, Credit Association, Realty Board and Chamber of Commerce joined in the banquet in honor of Coach Hayhurst's Glendale High school Dynamiters.

The people of Glendale and the merchants of Glendale realize that much favorable publicity has been given Glendale through the championship football team and that it has been a valuable asset to Glendale in the past few months. It has put "the fastest growing city in America" on the athletic map of the state, and spread the name of Glendale in the athletic world. Just one illustration might not be out of place. Mr. Moyse, principal of Glendale High school, made the statement recently that Mr. Bryan, who refereed the games in which Glendale played in the championship play-offs had decided to make his home here due to the favorable impression he had been given of Glendale from the team and the conduct of the players.

This matter of publicity, however valuable as it may be to the city, is not the chief reason the Glendalians have supported the High school football team this year. They realize what the team has accomplished and how it accomplished these things. At every banquet in honor of the team, and on every occasion on which the team has been presented to the public, the fact that they played clean football and worked together as a team rather than for individual glory has been commented upon. These are the chief achievements of the Black and Red footballers, leaving games won and lost out of consideration for the moment. The team that can play clean football at all times, play the game according to the rules, is the team that the average spectator wants to win, and it is the team that gets the most out of he game. A bunch of players that go in to win at any cost do not derive the benefit from the game that do those who play according to the rules. Neither do those who play for individual glory reap as much profit as those who sacrifice self for team work and victories. The people of Glendale realize that the High school team has played the game according to the rules and that every fellow on that team has derived much gain from the season. From their gain the city derives benefit.

STATE PREP GRIDIRON TITLE GAME IS TOMORROW

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—Bakersfield high school's football team arrived here today for its battle against Lick-Wilmerding at the Ewing field for the high school championship of the state. The squad of 30, accompanied by Coach "Goldie" Griffith and Assistant Coach Lee Cramner, are quartered at Hotel Whitcomb.

A limbering-up session is scheduled for the entire squad at Ewing field. Coach Griffiths will probably get his charges out this afternoon for their first peep at the grass field on which they must defend their title.

Lick-Wilmerding, San Francisco's representative, likewise winds up preparations this afternoon.

With it Bakersfield brings a great reputation. But, far from being cocksure, the champions of the southern half of the state are conceding to Lick every possible recognition of prowess.

The line-up:

Lick-Wilmerding		Bakersfield
Eagan	L.E.R.	Freear
Nelson	L.T.R.	Robesky
Ames	L.G.R.	McCain
Cook	C.	Hansen
Lausten	R.G.L.	Drison
Sollman	R.T.L.	Cooley
Andersen	R.E.L.	Johnson
Wooll	Q.	Burke
Tilden	L.H.R.	Caldwell

LEGION HOOPSTERS WALLOP HELLMAN BANK FIVE

Glendale American Legion basketball team handed the Hellman Bank five of Los Angeles a defeat last night and romped off with the long end of a 32 to 8 score. The game was played in the high school gymnasium. At the half the score stood 8 to 4 in favor of Glendale.

The local Legionaires started off in whirlwind style and finished the same way. They put up a real game of the melon sport, and had the Bankers backed off the map. It seems, however, that the money changers were short a man or so, said shortage completely ruining their team. For that reason they have promised to give the Glendale Legion another crack at them when they can get all their tellers together.

Next Thursday the local Legion quintet takes on the Victory post in a regular game in the American Legion league. The Victory post outfit does not look overly strong, and the locals should win the game. The Glendalians have won all of their games to date in the Legion loop.

The Glendale line-up last night was as follows: Bunker, center; Brown and Beach, forwards; Hibbard and Austin, guards; Legitt and Wheelon, substitute forwards.

It is common saying that the woman will have the last word, but at the athletic club recently the case was reversed. Husband and wife had been arguing from soup to dessert, and finally the wife murmured, plaintively "I don't know what would happen if you and I ever agreed," whereupon the man glowered at her and replied bitterly: "I'd be wrong: I'd be wrong."

HENDERSON SAYS THE HUSKIES WILL BEAT NAVY TEAM

There seems to be a great difference of opinion as to the outcome of the Washington-Navy game.

Elmer Henderson, coach of the Trojans, predicts that the Huskies will win by a score of 10 to 0. He believes that the Huskies are from 10 to 14 points better than the Midshipmen.

John Hawkins, who played on the U. S. C. team when it lost to Washington, 22-0, and who is captain-elect of the Trojans, says the final score will read 0-0 or 7-7.

"Washington may get a big surprise if the Huskies are overconfident. However, I think the result is a toss-up," Hawkins stated.

For those who are disinclined to take the work of dopesters or give much credence to their predictions, we publish this tabulated summary of the scores of the two teams during the season just closed:

GLENDALE HIGH GRID WARRIORS FEASTED

ravenous footballers and the others i nattendance.

During the dinner music was furnished by an orchestra composed of Glendale High school students. Those composing the orchestra were Wallace Haines, saxophone; Arthur Cressey, drums; Thomas Wood, violin; Ivan Dow, cornet; Henry Grace, pianist.

After the dinner, in fact, even before most of the assembled multitude had completed their pie a la mode, President Ed Hewitt of the Chamber of Commerce rapped for order and after a few introductory remarks introduced Dr. Henry Harrower of the Exchange club, the toastmaster of the evening.

Dr. Harrower started off with a little talk on the work of the football team, especially praising the coaches and the principal Mr. Moyse. He ventured several reasons why the "Dynamiters" lost to Long Beach in the final game for the Southern California championship. As he suggested each possible cause he asked the team whether or not it was correct. They all agreed that it was not overconfidence, although there was a division as to whether stage fright or the heavy plunges of the Long Beach team lost the game in the first six minutes. After more remarks about the team, Dr. Harrower introduced Coach Normal C. Hayhurst of the Glendale High school heavyweight football team.

Coach Hayhurst told about the manner in which the team was trained and the way it has kept in training all season. He stressed the fact that the boys had played clean football and had played together with perfect co-operation and team work. He then proceeded to introduce the members of the team to the crowd. Captain Ronald West, the first to be introduced, was presented with a football decked in Black and Red ribbons by the toastmaster, Dr. Harrower. The next man to be introduced was Captain-elect Richard Ryan. Hayhurst went down the line and presented each played, telling what position he held and how long he had been with Glendale. Coach Butterfield of the lightweight 130-pound team introduced his men and told of the work they did during the season. Following Butterfield, Coach Wolfe of the 110-pound "fleaweight" gridders introduced his gang of footballers.

In his talk Coach Hayhurst explained his version of the first six minutes of that Long Beach game. He said that as near as he could figure it out the men had been able to stop every other team without playing low. They tried the same thing against Long Beach. Trying to get them high the "Dynamiters" could not stop the Long Beach outfit. As soon as the Glendale team found out that it could stop the Jackrabbits by playing low, the Green and Gold eleven were unable to make any headway against the "Dynamiters."

Owen Emery, representing the Exchange club, gave a short talk and reminded the team of the trophies that had been won for Glendale High in past years in various lines of endeavor.

George Karr, Rotarian, toasted the "Dynamiters" in a little original piece of verse, which very cleverly set forth the work of the team. He was followed by "Slim" Johnston of the Exchange club. A. L. Ferguson of the Kiwanis club, vice-principal of the High school, told of the California interscholastic federation. He was followed by Peter Hansen of the Realty board, who gave a very humorous impersonation of a Swede talking on the subjects of "Spasms" and "Dynamite." Between speeches several songs written for the occasion were sung by the crowd, and the Glendale High yells were given, led by Archie Neal, yell leader of the school.

EDITORIALS BY THE PEOPLE

Glendale, California,
December 20, 1923.

Editor Glendale Daily Press:

Your fair report of the chamber of commerce mass meeting and your editorial analyzing the situation brought about by the signal failure of that meeting ought to have commendation of every good citizen.

John S. Knox should receive the gratitude of all for the able, fearless and courageous manner in which he stripped the proponents of every vestige of false power and prestige in which they had clothed themselves, experts as they claimed to be but only in spreading false and misleading propaganda paid for out of the taxpayers' money and used against their interests. The self-styled right-hand bower of the city council they proved themselves wholly unable to meet the situation and most signally failed to obtain an endorsement in the meeting called and controlled by them.

But why the realty board? Why not use your own power and influence as editor of the leading newspaper and appeal directly to the common sense and intelligence of the voters? Print the agreement and keep it standing instead of the manufactured and grossly misleading propaganda that is being published, and let the voters decide. I have a great deal of confidence in the voters doing the right thing when rightly informed, and the unfair and indefensible nature of the contract will undoubtedly meet with universal disapproval.

Again, why the realty board?

These proponents of the sewer agreement propose to sell out Glendale "body and breeches" for a good fat real estate commission. Councilman Davis is quoted as stating before the realty board, "If we vote the bonds and build this sewer, even though we never run a drop of water through it, it will still be a big thing for Glendale." All right as a "real estate" boost, but a very low principle for a city official to adopt, and I am exceedingly surprised that out of the reported 78 real estate "boosters" present no one of them had the interests of Glendale sufficiently at heart to repudiate such a sentiment. Glendale needs no "come on" or bunco artist to blacken its fair name, and that individual who would so far forget himself as to thus besmirch it is a dangerous enemy to our city.

The same gentleman gave out a poorly digested mass of statistics, all of them wholly misleading, at the Foothill Improvement association meeting; and these are kept in "standing type" in a local newspaper to fool and bewilder the voters, and I here and now assert they are both garbled and inaccurate and the deductions wholly unfair and without merit. To read from the report of the Los Angeles city council meeting at which they agreed and went on record to build a sewer to the Glendale city line within one year after consolidation of the two cities, and try to make it appear that it would have taken five years to build the line is certainly dishonest. I can read out of Holy Writ that "Judas Iscariot went and hanged himself" and another passage not far removed, "Go thou and do likewise", and prove the act and the advice as equally authentic.

To build this sewer under the terms of this agreement is to place ourselves under a state of vassalage to Los Angeles, a position the smallest and meanest of the towns in this country would scorn to occupy. It forever precludes the possibility of Glendale adding another acre of territory to our present boundaries and at the same time opens the way for Burbank to immediately annex the 1200 acres of the Lake avenue district which Glendale to her lasting shame tried on one occasion to do by wholly illegal methods and lost; and yet it should properly be within the boundaries of Glendale.

Another feature—even though we were to completely sewer Glendale as a safguard for our water supply we would still be far more greatly menaced from the cesspools of the city of Burbank as they are directly above our main water table and with a higher elevation and direct line of flow absolutely endangers our supply, whereas our own cesspools as a matter of fact do not.

The citizens of Glendale, therefore, by this unreasonable and untruthful assertion that our water supply is menaced by Glendale cesspools is like unto "the unclean bird that fouls its own nest."

While sewers are desirable, in fact, essential, yet we cannot afford to take them at the price; better far go into Los Angeles on equal footing with equal rights and privileges and be participators of all her glorious advantages than thus sell ourselves in this ignoble manner for a mere mess of sewage.

Vote against the sewer agreement and the bonds and prevent the unwarranted destruction of our chartered rights.

Yourt truly,
J. R. GREY.

Deaths and Funerals

ALICE SMITH

Alice Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of the Atwater district, passed away December 20, 1923, at a Los Angeles hospital at the age of 1 year and 5 months. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel of L. G. Scovern Undertaking company. Rev. Cookman officiated. Interment was held at Grand View cemetery.

SOME BIG INCOMES TAXED IN CALIFORNIA

Figures which became available yesterday showed that the two largest incomes reported for taxation in the Southern California district in 1922 were in the $250,000 to $300,000 and $500,000 to $750,000 classes. The two incomes are grouped to conceal the net income and identify the taxpayers, and amount to $779,406.

Collector Goodcell said yesterday that, on tehse two incomes of $779,406, a tax of $449,935 was collected. Of this amount $60,471 was the normal tax and $389,444 surtax.

Five Californians reported incomes in the $200,000 to $250,000 class, amounting to $1,148,459, and the total tax paid was $519,357. In the $150,000 to $200,000 class fifteen reported income of $2,575,648, on which the tax collected was $1,008,553.

Tomorrow at 12:30 noon is the closing hour for the final payment of 1923 income taxes. Today and Saturday ten thousand must make their last payments or become delinquent. Collector Goodcell estimates that the receipts from the final payment will pass the $5,000,000 mark.

SENTIMENT ON LIQUOR SELLING CHANGES IN 40 YEARS

In February 1883, "Old Timer," who for a year or more wrote weekly "Observations" for the Daily Press, began work as editor of a paper in a litle Illinois city of less than 2,000 population and five saloons. The same newspaper is still being published and each week there appears in it a group of items taken from the issue of 40 years ago. In last week's issue there appears the item below, written exactly four decades ago by "Old Timer," then 21 years of age. Compare the conditions prevalent then in most of the cities of the United States, as depicted in this item, with those now so evident and then deny if you will that "the world do move." Here is the article referred to:

"Another murder mill was put in operation in the Sherman house (the leading hotel of the city) last week. Marshall has now the proud consciousness of possessing six saloons where drunkards of all patterns are turned out daily in unlimited quantities. But let this work go on. As our contemporary, the Messenger, so aptly puts it, 'There are a number of our young men who are not quite ruined yet, but lack the finishing touches.' We entirely approve the council's action in granting this license, for the more of such hell holes that are started up the sooner will the reaction set in and the respectable, order-loving citizens demand a change."

Such sentiments as the above were decidedly unpopular with a large majority of the citizens of those days and the writer narrowly escaped rough handling more than once by publishing them.

THE CHRISTMAS CANDLE

For absent friends on Christmas night
I'll keep a candle burning bright,
And in the light of it I'll see
The faces all that used to be
With glad and merry words to say
About my hearth on Christmas day.

One candle I shall keep alight
For absent friends on Christmas night,
And they shall come right merrily
And bring words of glad cheer to me,
And I shall hear them laugh and sing
And shout and cheer and everything.

No matter where those friends may be,
Or near or far, they'll come to me,
And I shall see them in the night
By that red candle's cheery light.
And long as it holds out to burn
The absent friends shall all return.

Some East, some West, some South, some North,
Some gone from me forever forth,
But where they be, I shall be glad
For all the friends I ever had.
And for all absent friends that night
I'll keep that candle burning bright,
And round about my hearth they'll sing
And shout and dance and everything.

PROBLEM OF CRIME AND CRIMINALS TO BE CONSIDERED

Everywhere the matter of how to get rid of crime is receiving increased attention. In Los Angeles the matter is one of great acuteness, as crime is on the increase manyfold. It has a crime commission in the police department and crime crushers, both of which are trying diligently to solve this vexed problem. There is also the supplementary problem as to how criminals shall be handled when once they are apprehended.

This latter question will be the subject under discussion at the Los Angeles Open Forum, 233 South Broadway, Music-Art hall, Los Angeles, next Sunday night, December 23. At that time Dr. Ernest Bryant Hoag of Pasadena, a university extension lecturer and mental examiner of the Los Angeles supreme court, will give his address on the subject, "What Shall We Do With Our Criminals?" Dr. Hoag comes particularly well fitted to discuss this question. Following his address the usual question period will occur, when the audience will have the privilege of reacting to what the speaker has said.

The meeting will start sharply at 7:45 with a musical program furnished by Irving Breese, flutist, and Miss Irene Davis, vocalist. All city officers who have to do with the problem of crime are especially invited to be present as well as the general public. No admission fee is charged.

GILBERT DOUGLAS AN OLD FAVORITE ON BROADWAY

Gilbert Douglas made his Hollywood bow in Constance Talmadge's comedy, "Dulcy."

Douglas, an old favorite on Broadway, was brought to Hollywood from New York to re-enact the role of Schuyler Van Dyke, the "nutty millionaire," in this comedy of married life.

"Dulcy" was a recent New York comedy hit. Douglas created the role he is to have in the film and played it with huge success during its long stage run.

Douglas appeared once before in a Schenck production with Norma Talmadge in "Love's Redemption." This, however, was filmed in the East.

Others in the cast are Jack Mulhall, Claude Gillingwater, May Wilson, Johnny Harron, Frederick Esmelton, Anne Cornwall, Andre de Beranger and Milla Davenport.

"Dulcy" will be shown again today at the Gateway theater.

TOM MIX JUMPS ACROSS TO CHINA IN "STEPPING FAST"

Tom Mix scores official qualification as a champion trick automobile racer in his latest offering, "Stepping Fast," which the Glendale theater is showing again today.

In this highly charged melodrama of astounding thrills and sweet romance, Tom enlists the U. S. A. and China for his excitement locale. He and the lovely heroine escape from a dungeon in darkest China, when Tom lassoes a mouse and ties a "help message" around its neck and puts it out the window. Back across the Pacific they dash in a speedy yacht and race the blackguards to the hidden treasure.

Here ti is that the versatile Tom qualifies as a champion trick racer. The heavy, on horseback, attempts a get-away, but Tom, flinging himself into his prize racer, corners him by an extraordinary skilful and scientific exhibition of driving. The day is saved, the heroine won, and Tom smiles broadly for the final happy closeup.

The supporting cast is headed by Claire Adams, leading lady, who is a charming foil for the lively star.

"HIS CHILDREN'S CHILDREN" HAS SUPERIOR CAST

A picture with a wide range of scene and a story of great human interest is "His Children's Children," which will be shown at the T. D. & L. theater again tomorrow. The cast is an extraordinary one and among the featured players are Bebe Daniels, Dorothy Mackaill, James Rennie and George Fawcett. The principal supporting players include Hahlon Hamilton, Warner Oland, John Davidson and Joe Burke.

The story, which deals with the foibles of modern society life, high finance and parental neglect of children gives wide scope for sympathetic and picturesque treatment. Scenes in the picture range from Wall street to the Denver freight yards with many others, including Long Island homes, English mansions, Broadway cafes, subways, elevated roads, beaches, Greenwich Village, and Long Island hunting lodges.
